The tide came in and the Nova Endeavour is off the blocks and now ready for work. Mike Huntley moved the Nova Endeavor to Parrsboro in preparation for new ventures. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

I was just in time to see a boat leaving Parrsboro Harbour with a familiar name: The Kipawo. Lovely to see the name revived. The barge is owned by Huntley's Sub-Aqua Construction. The company has been a frequent user of Parrsboro Harbour. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

Kipawo and Nova Endeavor in Parrsboro

By Maurice Rees

Now that the ice has gone and better weather is ahead, Parrsboro Harbour has experienced an increase in activity in recent weeks. Mike Huntley, owner of Huntley's Sub-Aqua Construction is responsible for most of the activity.

Mike has moved the area's namesake barge the "Kipawo" barge back to the area. The first week of May, the Kipawo was in the harbour for a few days, but then sailed out of the harbour.

Mike Huntley, owner of Huntley's Sub-Aqua Construction, is a busy man these days. Much involved with Force and the turbine projects, he along with many was left in the lurch, so he works hard to make up that loss with other contracts.

The second week of May area residents were happy to see the Nova Endeavour return. Getting ready for work closer to Parrsboro, he moved his boat the Nova Endeavor to our harbour in preparation for new ventures.

Meet the Crew at Ship's Company Theatre

This year the ship has an all new core crew, and they're excited to meet patrons and everyone in the community. To give readers a chance to know more about them the South Cumberland News decided to print short bio's about each of them, prior to the start of the season.

Jack Paterson, Artistic Producer: Jack is an award winning director, dramaturge, translator, actor, theatre maker and producer whose work and study has taken across Canada, The United Kingdom and around the world. His work has ranged from contemporary devising, cross-cultural and multi-disciplinary projects to new works, main stage and classical theatre. He has trained at leading international theatrical institutions including Circle in Square (NYC, USA), GITIS The University of Performing Arts (Moscow, RU), SENI Indonesian Institute of the Arts (Bali, INA) and received his MFA from the renowned East 15 Acting School (London, UK).

Clare Wague - Interim Manager: Clare's faith in Theatre is based on the simple power of stories to transport individuals and create collective change through empathy. Her passion is for social enterprise, and the combination of creative and business practices. She is the former executive director of The Bus Stop Theatre and founder of the not-for-profit Cooperative that now runs the only independent performing arts venue in Halifax thebusstoptheatre.org. Clare has been living and working by the Bay of Fundy since 2014, redclayarts.ca. Clare's favourite tools are a chainsaw and a spreadsheet. If given the choice she'd rather be outside on the deck of a boat than inside a black box.

Alexandra Robin, Development and Marketing Manager: Alexandra is a creative, nerdy, and enthusiastic amazon with a diverse professional background in IT, support work, public relations, and in diversity & inclusion work. As a long-time human rights advocate, she feels that positive social change can only truly arise when people's stories have space to be told, and she loves the unique and beautiful ways live theatre can engage people with these stories while exploring even the tenderest aspects of the human experience. She's so excited to be putting her skills to use supporting incredible, live, and rurally-rooted theatre right here in Parrsboro.

The board of directors and staff would like to thank the Canada Council for the Arts, Canadian Heritage, Arts Nova Scotia, the Nova Scotia Department of Communities, Culture and Heritage, the Municipality of Cumberland County, and Parrsboro for their continue support.

Deadline for the July issue is June 18

FATHERS

(Dads)

They give to family first
Quenching our loves thirst
They keep their heads held high
Though they find it hard to cry.

To show their strength and pride
They hold their love inside
They work hard at their life
For their bride and their wife.

Emotions they sometimes hide
Gettind upset if you've lied
Teaching right from what's wrong
They say hello or so long.

Children are their pride and joy
Makes no difference girl or boy
Like diamonds that are in the rough
They keep a family strong and tough.

Like steel in a fiery hearth
They love you from your very birth
Though sometimes they can forget
Saying things they may regret.

Dads are truly really great
Like ships with lots of freight
Hearfelt hugs they come free
For our dads love you and me!

*God bless and Thank-you
