Boats in Parrsboro Harbour took on a surreal appearance as fog enshrouded the Parrsboro area on May 2nd. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

The view of the Bay of Fundy was practically nil from Ottawa House during the morning with heavy fog. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

The house and farm building on Hanna Road didn't get flooded, but there was lots of water in surrounding fields. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

If the water didn't wash out culverts, it sure plays havoc causing pavement to disappear leaving only part of Smith Hollow Road passable. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

There was lots of water flowing through Lakelands. Anything in its way would be moved or damaged quickly. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

Annual Plant Sale JUNE 1

The Hall at 44 King Street, Parrsboro is once again holding their popular Plant, Bake and Book Sale on Saturday, June 1 from 9 am till noon. There will also be tables for rent at $10 each. If you would like to rent a table please call -902-701-8951 by Wed. May 29, 2019. A volunteer will return your call to confirm your table.

There will be a great selection of perennials that are from gardens in the Parrsboro area. These will be potted prior to the sale. If you would like to donate plants, bake goods or books, the hall will be open Friday May 31 from 6-8 to accept you donations.

Tickets will be sold on the Armillary which will be drawn for on that day. Memberships will also be available on that day.

South Cumberland NEWS

is proud to provide coverage of community events.

As the day comes to a close, the last customers of the day wait for their meal from the Bangkok Food Truck. I have tried their menu on a number of occasions and it is refreshingly different, and very tasty. As usual the truck was well attended the whole day, hopefully leading to future visits.
