Bible Hill Candidate Tim Shea

Bible Hill Candidate Amanda Chaplin

Bible Hill Election June 13

By Maurice Rees

Bible Hill residents will go to the polls on June 13 to select two new village commissioners. The election is necessary because three residents put their name forward when nominations closed. The candidates are: Dwight Giddens, Tim Shea and Amanda Chaplin.

The two successful candidates will each serve a three-year term ending June 2029. Bible Hill electors can vote at either of two polling days to be held at the Village Office, 67 Pictou Road, as follows: Advance Poll - Friday, June 12, 2026, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. and Election Day - Saturday, June 13, 2026, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 7 p.m.

To vote, a person must, as of Election Day: Be a Canadian citizen; at least 18 years old; have been ordinarily resident in Bible Hill for six months; and be entitled to be registered on the list of electors to vote.

I've attached some information on a concert the Truro Concert Band is organizing in the hope of providing some assistance for young musicians to attend summer band camp, or to participate in provincial ensembles.

As you are aware, family budgets are tight, and the presenters of these programs are faced with ever-rising costs. The concert, "Bands Helping Kids Together" is a Band Camp Bursary Fund Benefit Concert to be held Thursday, June 4th, 7:00 pm in at the Portia White Auditorium, Cobequid Educational Centre.

Participants will include: Symphoninc Band, Ron MacKay Memorial Youth Band, Truro Middle School Band, Central Colchester Jr Hs Band and Truro Concert Band.

Admission by donation to Student Musician Bursary Fun
