Bass River Area Notes

By Joyce Starratt

Happy Valentine's Day. We're having lots of winter, aren't we? Snow is piled so high it's hard to plough it to make room for more. It seems to snow sometime every day or night.

We extend our sympathy to the families of the late Buelah Spencer, Portapique; Buelah Huntley, Bass River and James (Jimmy) Webb, Economy.

We are pleased to hear that Betty Creelman is out of hospital; June Lawson is going great; Tom Grue is home and I believe that is all the people who were ill.

Not so many activities going on now. Very quiet except for shoveling steps and cleaning the car every time you want to use it. I can still use a shovel.

Not much news to report this month. So Long for now. Hope you all keep well.
