THANK YOU

I would like to thank everyone who attended the pot luck supper that was held on Feb. 5 for Holly Grue. We were able to raise $1700 which was fantastic and exceeded expectations. I would also like to thank everyone and anyone who helped with making food, baking desserts and anyone who helped setup the hall, helped in the kitchen or with the clean up. Without the help and the support of everyone it would not of been the success it was. Thanks again to everyone involved. Becky Rushton

Mental Health First Aider Training

Many people have CPR and first aid training, but few have taken courses to become a Mental Health First Aider. To correct that imbalance Mental Health Commission of Canada is offering courses on becoming a Mental Health First Aider at Debert Court on March 22, 29 and April 4 and 12 from 6:30 pm to 9:30 pm.

In data circulated recently the commission says half of all mental health disorders occur by the age 14 and 75% by the age of 24; one in three will experience a mental health problem during their lifetime and one in five will experience some problem with their mental health in the course of a year.

There are over 38,500 mental health first aiders in Canada. For more information contact Cheryl Myers 902-641-3902.
