

Funday Trail Vintage Sled Ride Held at Club House

Funday Trail Photos and story by Linda Harrington

The Funday Trail Snowmobile Club held its first Vintage Sled Show & Shine on Sunday, February 23rd at the club house in Folly Lake and by the looks of the turnout it will be an annual event.

Club President Craig Cameron said he was very pleased with the number of sleds on display, adding "we were very fortunate with the perfect weather today!"

The Funday Trail Snowmobile Club is one of 21 clubs in the province under the parent group Snowmobile Association of Nova Scotia. There are over 100 members in the club, from the all over Nova Scotia and more than fifty people registered for the Show & Shine.

Craig McKay and his father Cameron had nine sleds on display, one an early 1964 Polaris Comet. They are enthusiastic collectors from New Glasgow and Craig estimates they own between 50 and 60 sleds, most of them in running condition. "We only brought nine here today because of space, but if we had a tractor trailer flatbed, we could have brought a lot more," he laughs. "We are used to going to shows in the summer, so being able to run them today is a nice change."

It was a great day for the 1st Annual Vintage Sled Ride in Folly Lake.

A colourful orange 1969 Moto-ski, complete with the original helmet was owned by Stephane Boudreau.

The father and son team of Craig and Cameron McKay are avid sled collectors, owning over 50 between them.

Marsha Eddy was pleased to display her 1967 Snowbug.

A 1964 Huski, owned by Brad Hayman was one of the more unique vintage sleds.

You have to check out what is under the good in these machines, such as this vintage Snow Cruiser.

Victor Brumm had a '79 and '81 pair of Arctic Cat Jags on display.

This 1964 Polaris was one of the oldest sleds on display.

Roxanna Johnson, Chair of the Ways & Means Committee, says the event has attracted people from as far away as New Brunswick. "We have 14 individual awards to hand out later this afternoon, ranging from the best restored to the best showmanship," says Roxanna. "Besides the competition there is a 50/50 draw, a canteen and later there will be a short trail ride and a parade around the lake."

The Funday Trail Vintage Sled Ride was sponsored by Crossroads Cycle and Recon Express. For more information on next year's event visit the Funday Trail Snowmobile Club's website at <http://fundaytrailsnowmobileclub.ca/>
