

Metalfab MHL First Responders Week Jersey Auction

Bearcat Bytes: Brady Stone

January 31, 2022
#3 Brady Stone
17-year-old Defenseman
Halifax, N.S.
5'8", 160 lbs

Bearcat-of-the-Week honours went to defenceman, Brady Stone. As one of three rookie rearguards on the team, he's learning the junior game. The 2020 Bearcat draft pick came to camp this year ready for the jump. He picked up his first goal in his first junior game. He also picked up four penalty minutes in that game. He's been busy in the latter category coming into the pause with 96 penalty minutes in 23 Bearcat games, the second highest in the MHL.

He came up through the Halifax Storm Major Bantam Program where he spent two seasons. His first U-18 season was with the Dartmouth squad, followed last year with a season with Steele Subaru. In both U-18 seasons, he showed an offensive flair scoring 19 points. Last year his play earned him a spot on the U-18 All-Star team. He brings to the Bearcats a sound skillset. While short in stature he's clearly not short on spunk.

Brady Stone

Bearcat Bytes: Tanner Greatorex

February 21, 2022
#19 Tanner Greatorex
18-year-old Defenseman
Truro, NS
5'11", 175 lbs.

Bearcat-of-the-Week honours went to defenceman, Tanner Greatorex. He and Jacob Christie completed their rookie year under solid mentorship, and this year each has a leadership role with significantly increased responsibility. The response has been good as each is now a reliable rear-guard.

Greatorex came up through the Truro and Area Minor Program to the Major Bantam level spending two seasons with the Truro club. Next up were a pair of years with the Weeks Midgets. Late in the first year he participated in the Canada Games with

Brant King

Team Nova Scotia. The year after he served as team Captain with the Weeks club. The 2019 draft pick by the Bearcats and Cape Breton Screaming Eagles made a quick adjustment to the junior level and has been a go-to player getting the opportunity to play in all situations while growing with each opportunity.

The Bearcat ice crew get ready to pick up pucks after the game warm-up at the RECC on Wednesday, February 23rd.

The Jr. A Bearcats won the game 8-0 against Amherst.

The Maritime Junior Hockey League will be holding a special week of games, sponsored by Metalfab Ltd., honouring first responders throughout the region. The league's twelve teams will each host one of these games between February 23rd and March 5th. As with previous initiatives, each team will wear specially designed jerseys which will be auctioned off.

"At the centre of every Canadian community is hockey and first responders", says Metalfab Business Development Manager Ryan Stacey. "Metalfab is extremely proud to be working with all first responders. The work they do keeping their communities safe, calm, and protected during times of need is extremely selfless and courageous. First responders are the backbone of our communities and we are honoured to partner with them. Together with the MHL, we can pay tribute to all first responders and give back to their communities."

Located in Centreville, N.B., Metalfab Ltd. has serviced many fire departments and municipalities throughout Canada for over 50 years. That includes many fire departments in and around the league's twelve communities. "Metalfab has been an amazing partner and we are excited to bring this week of games to our 12 MHL communities with their support," says MHL President Steve Dykeman. "I can't think of a better time to pay tribute and to say thank you to our first responders for everything that they do. Our communities cannot function without them and we are grateful for their sacrifices."

The Truro Junior 'A' Bearcats hosted their Metalfab MHL First Responders Week game on Saturday, February 26th at the Rath Eastlink Community Centre against the South Shore Lumberjacks. The teams will be wearing special jerseys created for this league-wide event, which were auctioned off. Truro won the game 5-1 and the auction returned $3550.00
