Fundy Carnival Was Lots of Fun

By Lawrence R Nicoll

Cindy Walker was organizer of the Fundy Winter Carnival held in Parrsboro weekend of February 18th. The "Winter Garden Creation Event" provided sun for the participants was held at the Fundy Geological Museum.

Cindy is one of two "fabulous" librarians at the Parrsboro library. She has a masters degree in Art Education from Concordia University in Montreal. Many other events as far as Advocate were held to break up the boredom of winter causing people to get out to socialize.

Created by Cindy Walker the Fundy Winter Carnival held in Parrsboro weekend of February 18th provided many indoor events, which were enjoyed by many who got out to socialize. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photos)

Higgins Turbine Felled Like a Tree

By Maurice Rees

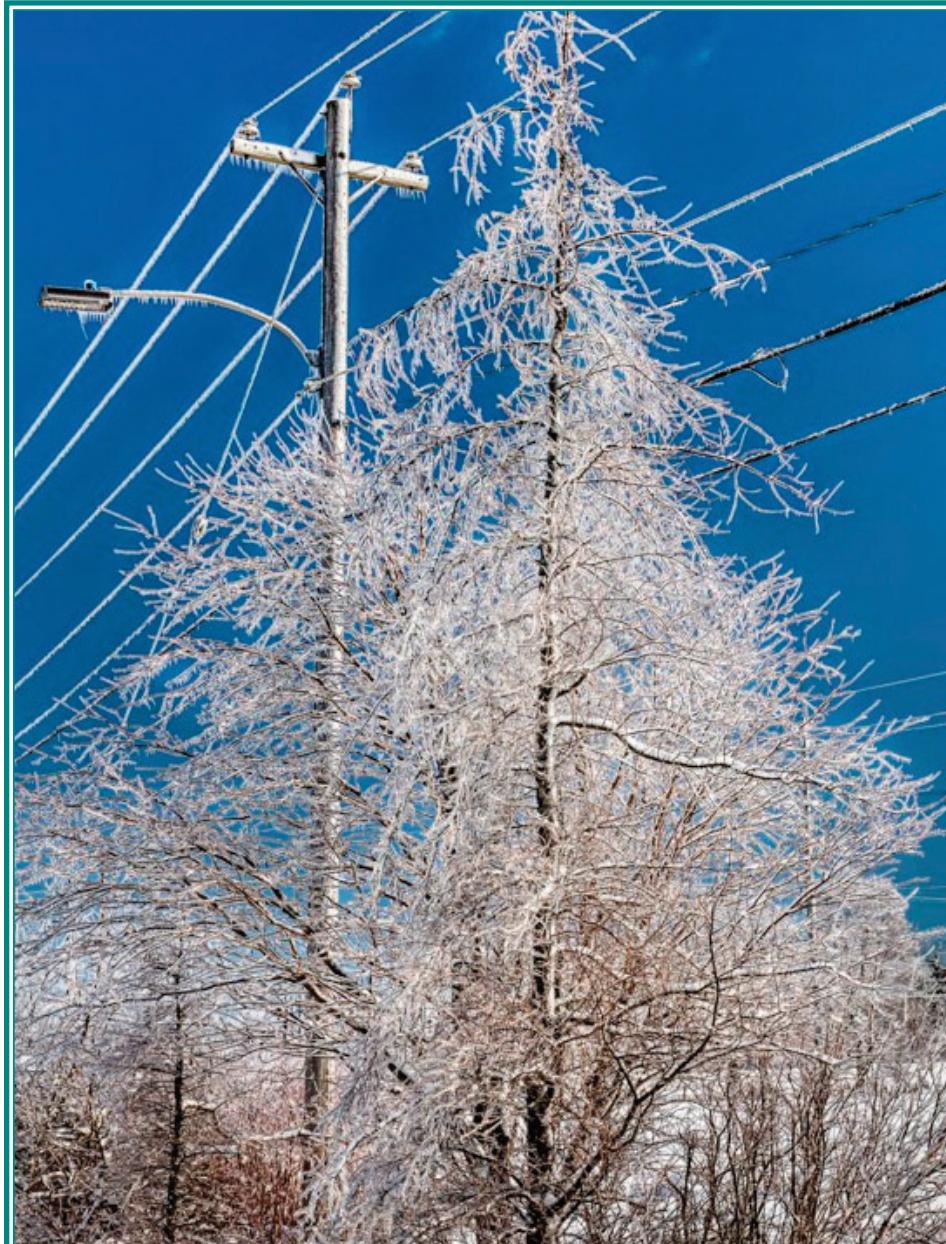

When the Shoreline Journal and South Cumberland News learned that one of the four towers at Higgins Mountain had been felled like a tree as part of a decommissioning of the four inactive towers, we set about to learn more. We contacted Paul Pynn, who about a year ago make a presentation to Colchester Council, to get accurate information.

During the presentation to Colchester Council there was a heated exchange with Mayor Blair, who expressed her dis-

An overnight of mist nor freezing rain can cause havoc for residents, but this January 30th event can create a photographic opportunity for those with a camera. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)

Municipality Announces 2023-24 Grants Program

The Municipality of Cumberland has announced its 2023-24 grants program.

The municipality recognizes the important contribution volunteer organizations make to the sustainability of communities and the county and wishes to support their efforts by providing financial assistance when that is necessary.

This program may be used to support any type of activity that benefits the community, including recreation, health and healthy living, social opportunities and community service, stewardship of the environment, education and life-long learning, community economic development and tourism, heritage, culture, and creative arts.

County General Grants

The County General Grants program supports community activities in four categories:

Capital Projects - For assistance with the construction of a new indoor or outdoor community facility, or renovations or major repairs to an existing one. Applicants can apply for up to 50 per cent of the costs of a capital construction project.

Operation and Maintenance - For assistance with the costs of operating and maintaining indoor and outdoor community facilities that provide services and benefits to residents of the Municipality of Cumberland, applicants can apply for up to 20 per cent of annual operations and maintenance cost to a maximum of $3,000.

Programs - For assistance with the costs of providing ongoing programs or services for the benefits of the community, applicants can apply for up to 30 per cent of the costs of a program/service, to a maximum of $5,000.

Special Events and Initiatives - For assistance with the
