

Fundy Shore Winter Carnival

The Fundy Shore Winter Carnival had a variety of activities taking place from Parrsboro to Truro, including Paint Nights, Pancake Breakfasts, Winter Wellness, Coasting and so much more. (Harrington Photos)

An enthusiastic group showed up to snowshoe at MacElmons Pond on Saturday, Feb. 17th.

There was plenty of conversation and laughter coming from this group of friends as they tried their hand at painting a winter scene.

Susan Beaver led a Paint Night at the Debert Community Association Hall for Winter Carnival, and everyone got to enjoy one of her famous tasty cupcakes, too.

No experience necessary! Susan presented step by step instruction and each painting turned out lovely.

It was a perfect day for snowshoeing in the woods as part of the Fundy Shore Winter Carnival. Beth MacMichael led two snowshoeing activities in the Debert area, one at MacElmons Pond on Saturday and then a second on Sunday at Mi'kmawey Trail.
