Jays Care Foundation to Support Local Sports

The Province of Nova Scotia is partnering with Jays Care Foundation and the Province of Ontario to support local sports.

Starting this spring, Jays Care 50/50 tickets at Blue Jays baseball games will be available for purchase online in Nova Scotia for the first time. Jays Care, a Toronto-based registered charity, sells the tickets to benefit children and youth sports.

"Allowing Nova Scotians to take part in this fundraiser is a first," said Colton LeBlanc, Minister of Service Nova Scotia. "Jays Care Foundation does great work to support facilities and programs where young people can play, and this partnership will allow more Nova Scotian kids to benefit."

Nova Scotia worked with Ontario to offer the raffle as an interprovincial lottery. It is the first time Canadians outside of Ontario have been able to take part.

Jays Care has a long-standing history of community investment in Nova Scotia. In 2023, more than 2,400 children and youth participated in Jays Care's play-based programming across the province, and there are currently 16 Affiliate Schools running Jays Care programs across Nova Scotia. Through its Field Of Dreams program, Jays Care has also invested more than $685,000 to build and refurbish baseball diamonds in six communities throughout Nova Scotia. Jays Care

Nova Scotians will be eligible to win the main Jays Care jackpot, with proceeds from all raffle ticket purchases by Nova Scotians used to support initiatives in this province.
