Bearcat Banter: Reality Sets In

February 16, 2025

The first Annual Metal Fab All-Star event proved to be successful.

The Bearcat representatives did very well. Forward Isaac Arsenault scored a pair of goals to lead the South Young Guns to an 8-4 win. He was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

The Senior Stars game saw the North pick up a 3-2 Shootout win. Bearcat goalie, Jack Milner was named Top Goalie, turning aside all 18 shots directed his way. Bearcat Captain, Zachary Marquis picked up a goal in the losing effort.

There aren't many games left in the regular season schedule. For some players on all teams, the end of season represents the end of their junior eligibility. The Bearcats have seven players who will age out.

Tyler Guy

Tyler Guy started his career in 2022-2023 with the Estevan Bruins. The Fredericton native came to Truro last year 18 games into his second Bruins' season.

Andyn Furnidge

Andyn Furnidge became a Bearcat four years ago, when, as an invite cracked the lineup and developed into a reliable forward and team leader. The Hilden native came up through the Truro Bantam, Fundy Thunder and Weeks programs.

Zachary Marquis

Zachary Marquis spent three seasons in the QMJHL split between The Rouyn-Noranda Huskies and Quebec Remparts. The Levis, QC native has not disappointed as a Bearcat, being named Team Captain and current leading scorer.

Reese Allen

Reese Allen came to the Bearcats at the Trade Deadline last year from the Miramichi Timberwolves. The Sydney native, now a third-year junior, spent part of his rookie year in the CCHL with the Cornwall Colts before heading to Miramichi.

Philippe Fauchon

Philippe Fauchon quickly established himself as one of the top defencemen in the MHL. The Levis, QC native patrolled the blueline with the Blainville-Boisbriand Armada the last three seasons. His impact was immediate

They came from all directions but became BEARCATS.

Owen Sparkes

Owen Sparkes came to the Bearcats in the off-season from the Amherst Ramblers. The Bay Roberts native previously played in the SJJHL with the CBN Stars.

Benjamin DeJonge

Benjamin DeJonge joined the Bearcats at this year's Trade Deadline. The Montreal native played with Campbellton last year and in Fredericton this season before his trade

They came from all directions but became Bearcats. The community thanks them for their contributions and wish them all well.
