“Age of Sail” Subscription Fund Raiser

Help raise funds for the Age of Sail Heritage Museum
And a chance to WIN 2 tickets to the

April 25th to May 18th, 2012

The Shoreline Journal is helping the Age of Sail Heritage Museum with its fund raising initiatives. The museum's volunteer members devote a lot of time to volunteer time to operate and staff the museum ensuring visitors receive an unforgettable experience when visiting the area.

The board of directors and members have done a fantastic job securing funding from government sources and conducting local fund raising initiatives to complete the new Wind and Wave addition to the complex. The funds will be put toward The Building Fund for interpretive design and accessible pathways.

That's where we stepped up to the plate. From now until May 18th, the Shoreline Journal will pay a generous commission to the museum for each subscription purchased by businesses or residents within the Cumberland South area.

If you wish to purchase a gift subscription for a friend or relative, who live in the area or elsewhere we will also contribute the same amount to the museum.

As an added bonus your name will be entered into a special contest with the winner receiving 2 tickets to the matinee presentation of the Royal Nova Scotia International Tattoo performance on June 30th.

For those who decide to purchase “gift subscriptions” for relatives and friends, the Shoreline Journal will send a “gift card” announcing you have purchased a “gift subscription” on their behalf.

Please make cheques payable to: Age of Sail Museum.
Participating entries must be postmarked by Friday, May 18, 2012.
