

Hub Cycle, Inglis St., Truro organized a group bike ride in support of Clara's Big Bike Ride for Bell Let's Talk. Truro Town Police Constable Robert Hunka led the bike ride to Colchester Legion Stadium.

Sabrina Marchese accepts a $400 cheque for CCJHS from Canadian Tire, one of the sponsors for Clara's ride.

Clara signs the CCJHS blue bike. Clara's Big Ride developed the 'Blue Bike' idea as a visual statement of support.

Marrina Lockhart looks over student notes posted on the CCJHS gym wall, with messages of what to do when you feel stressed.

Looking happy to be off the bike and on a pair of skates for a little while, Clara Hughes makes her way onto the red carpet at the Colchester Legion Stadium, Truro.

Left to right- Susan Henderson, CMHA- Colchester East Hants Branch, Six-time Olympic medallist Clara Hughes, Trampolinist Rosie MacLennan, who won Canada's first-ever Olympic gold medal in trampolining, and CCJHS Guidance Councillor Jackie Chambers.

"Grow your business here!"

Do you want custom designed office space, conveniently located in an exciting new location, but don't want the hassle of ownership?

Does a non-urban setting suit your business model better?

Is the right office space all you need to launch a new career?

NOW is the time to investigate prime office space under renovation across from Masstown Market. This location is on the move. New retail developments are currently underway and the "sky is certainly the limit" for market potential in this area.

Convenient access to Highway 104, close to Debert Airport, central location for traffic along the Bay of Fundy Shore from Truro to Parrsboro, 12 minutes from Truro and yet a relaxed rural setting awaits.

Renovations have been completed on the exterior of the building and designers are ready to discuss potential for interior floor plans.

Your dream office space can be a reality!
