March Break Enjoyable and Educational

By Hope Bridgewater

The 2nd Annual March Break Camp spanned Monday to Friday with kids arriving as early as 7am and leaving as late as 6pm. Daily activities included the following: Monday - Science Day - built volcanoes, exploded bottles of Coke, learned about chemical reactions. Tuesday - Super Hero Day - created our own super hero identities, built shields and masks and fought off evil. Wednesday - Arts & Crafts Day - built life-size cut-outs of ourselves plus a variety of other crafts. Thursday - Physical Activity Day - variety of sports and games played, plus garbage pick-up around the field to promote green living. Friday - Lazy Day - everyone wore pajamas and had crazy hair; fire fighters came for a visit and we met Tow Truck Driver Patrick Murphy who showed the kids his truck.

The March Break at the Wentworth Learning Centre was wonderful for the social, cultural and educational values it displayed for children in the community. Both children and older staff really enjoyed it.

Friday, April 6th, 2018 will be remembered as a day that shook the Humboldt Broncos, their families, loved ones and communities. This month on April 6th the CJHL and 133 member clubs across the nation took pause to remember and honour those affected by such a tragic event. Earlier in the 2019-2019 season the Truro Junior Bearcats invited first responders President of the League, Dave Ritcey (banner), team captain Dylan Burton and Kelly Kolke, a Humboldt Broncos alumni to center ice for a tribute and moment of silence. During the month of March Bearcat players dropped into various businesses who helped support during the 2018-2019 season. Iller Door Systems Ltd. helped with the Christmas parade. Pictured at the back, Bearcat players left to right, Hektor Myles, Dylan Burton, Karter Renouf and Trey Faulkner. In front left to right, from Iller Doors are Shawna Hawes, Lenard O'Toole and Brenda Admiral. The Bearcats extend a heartfelt thank you to all the businesses, supporters and groups who helped in so many ways this season. (D Brown Photo)
