Tickets on Sale for Village Follies

Ah-hooooooo! The Village Follies' latest musical, dinner theatre production, "Werewolves of Londonderry" is coming to Debert!

We all know what happens on the full moon, but this year, this month, is a special one for the werewolves in these parts.

Alpha wolf, Patrick, his wife, Erma, and niece Kari isolate themselves in their camp, in the Londonderry woods, to prepare themselves for what's coming. What they didn't anticipate was company. Lost fishermen, and an unintentional invitation bring unexpected visitors to complicate the situation. Worse yet, a cousin from the less civilized side of the pack arrives. Will Patrick, and his nervous ranger friend be able to keep everyone safe? Is there a cure? Will the pack be expanded?

Curses, cures, and comedy will combine to make you hooooowl with laughter.

Some performances have already sold out, but tickets remain for Friday, May 3rd, Thursday, May 9th and Friday, May 10th. Doors open at 6:30, show begins at 7:00PM.

Tickets are $40, and include a delicious three course meal of salad, chicken entrée, and dessert. Also included are tea or coffee, rolls, and lots of laughs.

All performances will take place at the Debert Legion Branch 106, 1252 Masstown Road, Debert, NS.

To order tickets please email thevillagefollies@gmail.com with your name, date and number of tickets. For more information phone 902-662-3710.

School of Rock

Cobequid Educational Centre presented School of Rock, The Musical in April to very fantastic reviews. A very professional performance could not have happened without the many volunteer hours from Director by Sheena Henderson, Musical Director John MacLeod, a cast of close to 50 CEC students plus a sizable production crew, including a pit band. Well done each and everyone! (Harrington Photos)

The band No Vacancy actors take a bow.

School of Rock manager Summer Hathaway (played by Sappho Thompson) sings Stick It To The Man with fellow students.

Dewey Finn (played by Gilgamesh MacNearney) rocks out with Zach Mooneyham (played by Carter Roberston) as the backup singers join in.

Cast members all take to the stage for the final number You're in the Band.

COVID-19 Vaccine Spring Dose Eligibility

Nova Scotia is following recommendations from the National Advisory Committee on Immunization (NACI) to provide people at highest risk a spring dose. This includes:

- people 65 years of age or older
- people aged 18 and older living in long-term care, nursing homes, senior congregate living settings or residential care facilities
- people six months and older who meet the criteria for being moderately to severely immunocompromised due to an underlying condition or treatment
- people aged 50 years and older who identify as Black, African Nova Scotian or First Nations

The COVID-19 Spring Dose is available through your primary care provider, Nova Scotia Primary Care Pharmacy Clinics and Public Health Mobile Units. It is recommended that people wait six months after their last COVID-19 vaccine or infection to get a vaccine dose but a shorter interval of at least three months is allowed for the spring dose.

Those eligible can receive the spring dose until May 31, 2024.

People who did not receive a dose in the fall or winter can continue to get the vaccine, even if they are not eligible for this specific spring campaign.
