Nominations Open for 2024 Community Spirit Award

Nova Scotians are invited to nominate a community that promotes citizen engagement and civic pride for the 2024 Lieutenant-Governor's Community Spirit Award.

"The leadership demonstrated by communities across the province is truly inspirational," said Lt.-Gov. Arthur J. LeBlanc. "Their work reminds me of the goodness that exists in Nova Scotia, and I look forward to learning about the invaluable contributions that will be recognized through the 2024 Lieutenant-Governor's Community Spirit Award program."

Up to four communities are chosen each year by a selection committee based on the award's criteria. The Department of Communities, Culture, Tourism and Heritage administers the award.

"The Lieutenant-Governor's Community Spirit Award recognizes Nova Scotians who are welcoming and make their community a great place to live, work and visit," said Allan MacMaster, Minister of Communities, Culture, Tourism and Heritage. "This award recognizes communities that go the extra mile to create viable and positive environments for their residents."

The deadline to submit a nomination is midnight on Wednesday, May 15. Applications are available at: <https://cch.novascotia.ca/in->
