OBITUARY

LEWIS-PARKER, Nancy Lea (December 31, 1959 - October 7, 2012)

With heavy hearts we announce the passing of our dear sister, mother, wife and friend at home in Auckland, NZ on Sunday, October 7, 2012. Nancy is survived by Paul, her loving and devoted husband of almost 25 years, and two beautiful daughters, Eva and Sophie her sisters Donna (Grant) Ballam Barrie, ON, Lorna (Frank) Monteleone Mississauga, ON; special cousin Bob (Debra) Quigley, Dartmouth, NS; Aunt Audrey MacLellan, Truro, NS; the Parker Family, Auckland, NZ, nieces, nephews and cousins in Canada and New Zealand. She was predeceased by her parents, Logan and Evelyn Lewis of Bass River. Nancy was born in Truro, NS and lived in Bass River, NS. She will always be remembered for her ongoing love and compassion for everyone who came into contact with her. She had an amazing zest for life which was clearly shown in her everyday life, both personally and professionally. Her family and friends were very important to her. Nancy was the first girl and the youngest person to ever complete her solo flight at Truro Flying Club at age 17. She was Crowned Miss Nova Scotia in 1978 and competed in the Miss Canada Pageant in Toronto, Ontario. She was an avid knitter, quilter and reader, amongst other hobbies. Even though Nancy lived in NZ for half of her life, she never forgot or lost her Nova Scotia and Canadian roots.

Nancy achieved her Bachelor of Nursing degree at Dalhousie University in Halifax, NS and then worked at the Victoria General Hospital there until moving to Auckland to work at
