Islands on the Coast

This is my land • This is your land

I've been away to a far off land
Across the mighty sea
How I dream of that white sand
Oh where can it be

My beach of desire

I've seen the great pyramids
With cats at their door
Water jars with tops and lids
Castles with no floor

My beach of desire

My home is there a land of sand
Where the Nile flows along
The visions there Oh so grand
A land of voice and song

My beach of desire

I can't go back I've lost my way
I'm trapped in my mind
I miss my love and what to say
Heartbreak is all I find!

God Bless and Thank-you

MacCaull Villa Notes

By Hazel Hill

Bernice Kaulback has been sick, but told me she is feeling better and went to town with Linda and had supper at Molly's Restaurant. Gary Rogers has returned from a visit to New Jersey, USA.

Shannon MacAloney and Sharon Roode have been attending the special services on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings at the Baptist Church, Bass River with special speaker Rev. Ed Sealy.

CALA school started again with some classes here in the lounge on Wednesday afternoon with several new students. Faith Baptist Church with leader Doug Lake and Pastor Steve Adams are coming every second Wednesday evening for Bible study.

We were all shocked at the sudden death of Jack Seaman in September. He was only here a few months, but made many friends then he suddenly took ill going to the Colchester East Hants Medical Centre on Sunday, but passed away on Monday, September 16th. Several from here attended the graveside service at Eagle Hill Cemetery, Westchester. We extend our sympathy to his family.

Merton Eagles is spending Thanksgiving with his mother and brother in Economy. We certainly enjoyed fantastic weather for the Thanksgiving weekend. Stella Power is spending some time in Five Islands.

I want to thank all those who phoned, visited and send cards in my recent bereavement, losing my grandson, Andrew. Your kindness will not be forgotten. Andrew is the son of Ferguson and Lillian Hill. He is to be buried in the family lot in Great Village.

During Fire Prevention Week members of the Fire Department and Cobequid Housing conducted a fire drill in the villa on Thursday, October 7th. George Cook and friends were here last evening for music. Everyone enjoyed the evening.

150 Cards Created for Ronald McDonald House

By Barbara Himelman

On October 20th, I hosted a card crop at the Diligent River Community Hall with 11 students and customers who game for the day. Between us all we created 150 handmade greeting cards to donate to Ronald McDonald House in Halifax.

These cards are for staff and residents to give to patients who are in the hospital during special occasions, such as birthdays or holidays. We are planning to make this a twice yearly event, in the spring and in the fall. It was a great success, and everyone had a wonderful time.

A collage of the 150 cards created by the workshop organized by Barbara Himmelman in Diligent River on October 20th. (Submitted)

Some of the ladies who participated in the workshop in Diligent River included: (L-R) Shirley Hurley, Parrsboro; Janie MacKenzie, Parrsboro and Cindy Patriquin, Wellington.
