Senior Clubs' Picnic in Springhill

Betty Curry, Gordon Canning, Charley Patriquin, and Jerry Metz play beautiful music together, with Charley at times playing the fiddle and at other times singing. The summer picnic of the Cumberland County Senior Citizens Council & Clubs was held at the Springhill Senior Citizen Recreaton Centre. (Hope Bridgewater Photo)

By Hope Bridgewater

The annual summer picnic of the Cumberland County Senior Citizens Council & Clubs meeting was held in Springhill at their Senior Citizens Recreation Centre, 4 McDougall Street. This building was once the pay office of the Springhill Mining Company and has lots of space in its two floors for community meetings.

The Springhill Senior Club hosted the picnic from 1:30 to 5 pm and its focus was on entertainment and friendship. The executive of the Springhill Club are Mary Ellen MacDougall, Vice-President Russell Fisher, Secretary Ethel Gilbert, and Treasurer Verna Clarke. After an introduction by Council President Judy Schultz and Springhill Club President, Mary Ellen MacDougall, the entertainment began.

Jerry Metz from Springhill sang and played the guitar with skill, drama, and amazing talent. Barbara Moore and Arlene Goodwin representing the Northport Club did readings and told jokes which were appreciated by much laughter. Betty Currie (piano), Charley Patriquin (violin and guitar) and Gordon Canning (acoustic guitar) represented the Wentworth Club by playing Down East style music consisting of waltzes, polkas, jigs, and foxtrots with great vitality, exhilarating rhythm, and superb musicality. Charley Patriquin also sang in wonderful style several country songs. Then, Charley invited talented Jerry Metz to join the three of them on stage and this band made marvelous music together with Charley taking turns fiddling and singing. Next, Oxford Club Secretary, Ethel Gilbert did a reading, and Council President Judy Schultz told jokes and stories. The 50/50 prize was won by Virginia McCormick.

Once the entertainment ended, supper was announced. The Springhill Centre has a kitchen and large dining room. As usual at the summer picnic, a potluck supper was arranged by all the club members bringing "cold" containers of food to the kitchen where Springhill club members arranged all the food. As it was summer, it was not wise to bring heated food. Members lined up to obtain food from the kitchen and then went out to the long tables to eat and chat. Some of the food had been placed on the tables as well. All in all, it was a grand picnic.
