The Wilson family's dedication to giving back to the community, while operating one of the iconic ski facilities in Nova Scotia has resulted in the annual Fall Festival of Colours becoming a major attraction on Thanksgiving weekend. For two days there are plenty of activities for all ages.

Held on October 8th and 9th, over 3,400 people turned out to enjoy the Fall Festival of Colours this year. It was the largest turnout ever for the annual Thanksgiving Weekend event. Always at the mercy of the weather, this year the beautiful, warm weather and gorgeous display of leaves lead to the success. The event was over and displays were put away before Thanksgiving Monday wind and rain storm

The Wilson family who own and operate Ski Wentworth make sure there is lots of activities for all ages at the Fall Festival of Colours. A BBQ, a large variety of drinks and a play area for those not wanting to go up the chair lift, plus a rental equipment for avid skiers, kept everyone busy and having a great time. (Submitted) a remnant of Hurricane Matthew which wreaked havoc on Haiti, Bahamas, and coastal USA from Florida to the Carolinas hit Nova Scotia.

Along with chair lift rides up and a nice hike down the hill, and lots of activities, a BBQ and a large variety of drinks at the bottom of the hill, the crowd grew larger for the annual rental equipment sale drew lots of anxious skiers getting ready for the ski season.

Ski Wentworth's Open House, Ski Swap & Craft Sale will be held on Saturday, Nov. 19. For avid skiers who were unable to attend on Thanksgiving weekend, or on November 19th, Ski Wentworth continued the rental equipment sale on October 22. The sale will continue on Nov. 5 from 10am-1pm., with the large and final sale on November 19th. For more information visit: www.skiwentworth.ca.

This happy trio were part of the over 3,400 who attended the Fall Festival of Colours at Ski Wentworth on Thanksgiving Weekend. Held on Saturday and Sunday, the event was one day ahead of the remnant of Hurricane Matthew's major wind and rain storm which passed through the province on Thanksgiving Day. (Submitted)

Harvest greets the Holidays continues at MASSTOWN MARKET

Fall is an exciting time at Masstown Market with many varieties of apples, fresh from Annapolis Valley, local cranberries, squash, and assorted root vegetables filling the produce bins. Time for homemade soups and stew!

New products continue to arrive in the Gift and Fashion Boutique. Comfy cozy Alpaca scarves and throws have just arrived in a variety of gorgeous colors.

Winter Wonderland has opened at the Garden Center location. A great time to explore creative new decorating ideas and maybe start a new family tradition.

The cooler temperatures makes one crave foods to warm the soul and Masstown Market Bakery has everything one could desire. Cinnamon rolls, pies, cookies or a fresh baked sugar donut with a hot beverage.

Fresh baked raisin bread, still warm from the oven, or hearty brown bread always compliments a nice bowl of steaming hot baked beans.
