

Saltscapes Harvest greets the Holidays

Across from Masstown Market

Masstown Market is pleased to once again support Saltscapes Harvest greets the Holidays across at The Peg. This year's event looks to be bigger and better than ever, with over 100 participating vendors and a fantastic agricultural component showcasing farm to table.

The Expo has been extended to three days this year with plenty of onsite parking. Doors will be open Nov. 10th 12 Noon-6 PM, Nov. 11th 12 Noon -6 PM and Nov. 12th 10 AM- 4 PM.

4-H members will have a variety of small farm animals on site for youngsters to get up close and personal with and there will be oxen, draft and quarter horses on location, also.

The Kubota Rural Skills Challenge is new this year. Have you ever stomped berries or looked for a penny in a hay bale? Maybe you should join us and register for the friendly competition for some fabulous prizes.

Masstown Market will be firing up the bean pot for the Pork and Bean Supper at Saltscapes Expo from 4-6 PM on Saturday. Advance tickets can be purchased online at www.saltscapes.com/SSHH.

When visiting Saltscapes Harvest greets the Holidays, make sure you leave time in your day to drop over to Masstown Market. The Garden Centre has been transformed into a Winter Wonderland, filled with fall and winter holiday decorating ideas. Masstown Market Restaurant is open daily from 8am -9pm, with breakfast served until 11am. The seafood chowder pot is always on or try one of the fresh made-to-order sandwiches with a side of soup or salad..

Masstown Market Bakery has everything one could desire. Cinnamon rolls, breads, pies, cookies or a fresh baked sugar donut with a hot beverage. Fresh baked raisin bread, still warm from the oven, or hearty brown bread always compliments a nice bowl of steaming hot baked beans. And when planning your holiday entertaining, check out the online Masstown Market catering brochure at www.masstownmarket.com.

Masstown Market will be open 12 Noon- 9 PM on Remembrance Day!
