Fall Festival of Colours attracts over 4,000

By Maurice Rees

With all the warm weather, the brilliance of the fall colours has not been as good as previous years, but the beauty of the Wentworth Valley, regardless of the time of year, attracted over 4,000 people to the Ski Wentworth Fall Festival of Colours on Thanksgiving weekend.

This year was special in that the weather was warm and sunny, which increased the attendance. The variety of fun activities offered by Ski Wentworth has contributed to the event becoming a family tradition.

Beautiful weather and colourful leaves in Wentworth Valley brought out thousands of people of all ages for the Thanksgiving weekend Fall Festival of Colours at Ski Wentworth. "We had over 4000 people here this year, it's our largest turnout ever!" said Leslie Wilson, General Manager of Ski Wentworth. "Families are making it part of their annual Thanksgiving tradition."

Activities included chairlift rides, pony rides, haystack playground, inflatable castle and petting zoo.
