GLOVER, Yvonne Faye - Age 84, Truro. It is with deep sorrow and much love that we mourn the passing of our beloved Yvonne Faye Glover (Chase) of Truro, who passed on October 8, 2022, in the Lillian Fraser Memorial Hospital in Tatamagouche. Born in Truro, Yvonne was the only child of the late Merle Chase and Blanche Etta Willis. Yvonne moved to New York and had a successful career as a bookkeeper for several years and returned in the late 90's to Truro - the home and town she loved so dearly. For years, Yvonne served as a member of the Truro Police Board. She was very interested in the comings and goings of what was happening in her community. She was known for her quick wit, sharp tongue, and was never afraid to speak up. She could often be heard saying, "It is what it is." and, "One day at a time." Yvonne and her husband, Henry, loved having people visit their home and spending time in their beautiful backyard, sharing laughter and memories. She took great pride in her home, neighbourhood, and her husband, Henry. Even though he was an American, Henry became a "Truroian" at heart. Besides her parents, Yvonne was predeceased by her husband of eleven years, Henry Clay Glover; son, Jimmy Penick III; several uncles, aunts, and cousins. Yvonne is survived by her cousin and "guardian angel," Jill Willis; special friends, Lynda Babineau, Lynn Jones, Christine and Jim Flemming, Cathy Hinton, Deb Pryor, and her "baby boy," Corey Simmonds. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Lillian Fraser Memorial Hospital Auxiliary in Tatamagouche. A visitation to celebrate Yvonne's life was held October 13th in Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow St., Truro, NS. Burial followed in Terrace Hill Cemetery with the Rev. Lori Ramsey officiating. Online condolences may be sent to the family by visiting www.ColchesterCommunity.com

MENTIS, Raymond Novaro - Age 89, Truro, passed away peacefully on October 8, 2022, in the Colchester East Hants Health Centre, Truro. Born in Truro, Raymond was the oldest son of the late Robert "Bob" and Viola (Parsons) Mentis. Raymond led many career paths throughout his life. He worked for Elliot Lake Uranium mines, Via Rail, Eastern Airlines as well as the School Board of Montreal. After his retirement, Raymond worked at Inland Technologies Inc. in Truro. As a young man, Raymond enjoyed playing guitar, hockey, golfing and gardening. Raymond will be remembered for his love of big cars, driving slowly, his sense of humour and his smile. Raymond was always the life of the party, from showing off his dance moves to singing songs and telling stories. It was impossible to have a bad time in his presence. Raymond can be quoted as saying, "I lived a good life." Raymond is survived by his spouse, Ida Borden; his children, Marylynn, Margaret-Rose, Cassius "Ray", Novaro and Raya; stepdaughters, Dana and Lorrie; grandchildren, Julia, Alexandria, Philip, Isaac, Mylika, Piero, Olivier, Makayla, Amyla, Jacob and Aria; his great grandchildren, Teddy and Maggie; brother, John; sister-at-heart, Brenda; many nieces and nephews, cousins and friends. Besides his parents, he was predeceased by his brothers, Robert "Cook", Burton "Burtie" and sister, Lenora "Sissy". Raymond will be dearly missed by his family, friends and community. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation. Funeral service was held October 21st in Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow St., Truro, NS. Pastor Clara Jordan officiating and assisted by Deacon Marie Francis. Repast followed the service. Burial in Robie Street Cemetery, Truro. The family asks that those attending Raymond's service, if possible, wear something yellow to honour him as this was his favourite colour. Online condolences at www.ColchesterCommunity.com
