

Bearcats Sign Goaltender Martin

The Truro Bearcats are pleased to announce the signing of 2002 born goaltender Connor Martin from Calgary, Alberta. Martin has almost 50 games of experience with the Calgary Canucks of the AJHL and 23 games in the WHL between Victoria, Seattle and Vancouver. Martin will bring a veteran presence between the crease to form a goaltending duo with rookie Jack Milner. Welcome to Truro, Connor!

Bearcats Sign Forward Brandon Crowell

The Truro Bearcats are pleased to announce the signing of 18 year old forward Brandon Crowell.

The Dartmouth, Nova Scotia product was originally a 2020 7th round pick of the Pictou County Weeks Crushers before his rights were traded to Truro in the 2021-22 preseason in the trade that sent Lucas Parsons to Pictou.

Crowell spent the past 3 seasons playing for Mount St. Charles Academy in Rhode Island where he amassed 77 points in 127 career games with the Mounties which was capped off with a U18 national championship in the 21-22 season.

The right shot forward started the season in the BCHL with the Trail Smoke Eaters before making his way back east to Nova Scotia.

Crowell says he is looking forward to being in Truro and having a good season for the team and the fans.

Welcome to Truro, Brandon!

Truro Junior A Bearcat Alumni, Ryan Porter was the Bearcat representative in the Pie Eating Contest to support Chantelle's Pumpkin Blast, a fundraiser for Cystic Fibrosis.

Chantelle lost her life to Cystic Fibrosis and her Father Mark Lindsay and his wife Kelly and family created a wonderful fun-filled family weekend of events to honor Chantelle's memory and to raise awareness and funds to help others dealing with this disease. Pictured on left Ryan Porter, Mark Lindsay and cheerleader, Jack the Mascot.
