

Kathleen Giltenan and Joe Aquilina picked up a copy of Harold Giddens' new book "Charlie, the Little Bear that Did". Harold (Hal) of Westchester was at Masstown Market for the launch of this lovely new children's book. He wrote the book last December during a Covid lockdown on a cruise ship. He dedicates the book to his late wife who had always encouraged him to write a book about the story of Charlie but sadly she passed away before it was written. (Harrington Photo)
