

The third annual Train Day in Parrsboro happened on Saturday, September 23rd. Organizers were delighted to see so many parents with kids joining us for a day of fun. Members of the Cumberland Area Railway Club displayed their HO scale layout and our very own Randy Mosher showed a depiction of the Cumberland Rail & Coal Company in G scale. Thomas, the Tank engine made an appearance as well. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photos)

Annual Christmas Tree Lighting, Nov 24TH

The Parrsboro & District Board of Trade and the Clause Cause will co sponsor the Annual Tree Lighting on Friday, November 24, 2023 at 6:30 pm at the Bandstand in Parrsboro. The Parrsboro Citizens' Choir will sing a few tunes at 6:15 pm. Children will be asked to enter their name in a draw to decide who will light up the beautiful fully decorated tree. Immediately following the tree lighting The Hall on King St. will sponsor a free family movie. The title has not been chosen as of press time. The Canteen will be open to purchase of snacks. What a great way to kick start the Christmas season.
