Music Week Delegate Pass Schedule

Music Nova Scotia is thrilled to announce that this year's Nova Scotia Music Week (NSMW) will take place in Truro/We'kwampekitk from November 12-15, 2026. Now in its 29th year, NSMW invites music fans across the province and beyond to celebrate Nova Scotia's world-class artists and music industry professionals with four days of music festival performances, conference programming, and an annual awards ceremony.

(October 20, 2026 – Halifax/Kjipuktuk, NS) - Music Nova Scotia is thrilled to announce the 2026 Music Nova Scotia Music & Industry Awards Brunch. Celebrate the best of this year's Nova Scotian music and industry on Sunday, November 15, at the Inn On Prince Truro, where doors will open at 10am and the ceremony will begin at 11am.

This year's ceremony will present awards in 16 music and 8 industry categories. The ceremony will be hosted by Katie Kelly, and will feature special performances by ADINA, Alan Syliboy Trio, Bill Ricky, and Good Dear Good. Be sure to visit our friends Nova Scotia Spirit Co. on your way inside to enjoy their annual Caesar bar!

Limited Awards Brunch tickets are on sale now for $40 plus fees. Please note: delegate passes and festival wristbands do not gain access to the Awards Brunch. A separate ticket is required.

Music Nova Scotia would like to extend a huge thank you to NSMW's Premier and Presenting Partners for helping make this year's event possible: FACTOR, the Government of Canada, and Canada's Private Radio Broadcasters, the Province of Nova Scotia, Support4Culture, the Central Nova Scotia Tourism Development Society, TD Bank Group, Atlantic Lottery, Garrison Brewing Co., and Nova Scotia Spirit Co.

Music Nova Scotia would also like to thank this year's award partners: The African Nova Scotian Music Association (ANSMA), Baker Tilly, Colchester County MLAs, Confederacy of Mi'kmaw Nations, McDonald's, Municipality of Colchester, Pye Chevrolet, SOCAN, Stage Right Brasserie / The Boxing Club, Support4Culture, Town of Truro, and Vintage Mouldings.
