

PINK! It took plenty of cooperation among CCJHS students and their Respect Ed team but they were able to spell out a huge PINK on the soccer field and display their stand against bullying in a big way. The letter P was formed inside a smiley face.

snack this afternoon," said Principal Connie Smith. "We are using our smaller groups to look at ways to not have bullying and to get along. We talk about how situations make you feel."

Central Colchester Junior High students gathered in their gymnasium for an assembly on Sept. 11th. The Respect Ed team presented a power point presentation on Stand up Against Bullying and made the anti-bullying pledge, "I will not stand by, I will stand up." The song "Don't Laugh At Me" was played as part of the presentation.

CCJHS students and staff then made their way out to the soccer field and used their bodies to write the word PINK, with the letter P inside of a huge smiley face.

Chiganois Elementary students and staff brought their anti-bullying message to the front lawn of the school on Wed., Sept. 16th. They formed a huge 'do not' symbol on the front lawn (a circle with a line across) with their bodies.

Chiganois students were given an anti-bullying pledge to sign, as well. They pledged to join together to stamp out bullying in their school. Students also received a pink anti-bullying iron-on badge, which they can attach to their book bags as a reminder of their pledge.

Chiganois SAC Chairperson Bob White coordinated 16 sponsors in order to purchase "No Bullying Zone" pink t-shirts for each student and staff member in the school. Students will be asked to wear these shirts at monthly assemblies, as a reminder of their anti-bullying pledge and to show that Chiganois Elementary feels strongly about standing up against bullying.

At West Colchester Consolidated in Bass River, and Bass River Elementary

School, students and staff wore pink to recognize Stand up Against Bullying Day. The Leadership Team of students plans to look at various ways of promoting anti-bullying throughout the school year.

Students and staff at Chiganois Elementary formed a huge "Do Not" sign on the school lawn to illustrate their anti-bullying message.

Students at Great Village Elementary were encouraged to wear pink on Sept. 17th in recognition of Stand Up Against Bullying Day. Constable Jane MacDonald (centre) came to the school to talk about ways to prevent bullying. She was happy to pose for a photo with some students wearing their pink shirts. Front to back (left to right)- Kameron Miller, Haley Spencer, Colby Spencer, Holly Gould, Claire Carroll, Maya Warman, April Sharpe, Madison Pugsley, Carly Fielding, Ava Gould, Constable MacDonald with Larissa Johnson, Ryan Miller, Zoe Kelly, Camryn Adams, Kirsten Olsen, Serena Delmastro, Luke Creelman, Tyler Comeau, Luke Smith, Dakota Smith and Nicole Higgins.

RESPECT ED

Proudly wearing their new pink t-shirts were Chiganois students (front 1 to r) Lindsey Smith, Mariah Putnam, Brooklyn Jordan, Madilyn Phillips, Beverly Gilbert; (back 1 to r) Daniel Faber, Riley Hamilton, Luke Vantol, Brent Rushton, Ja-Mychal Cartwright, and Keegan Jardine.

Debert Elementary students Kohl Lockhart and Brooklyn Robichaud show their new antibully t-shirts to Constable Jane MacDonald during the Stand Up Against Bullying Day assembly on Sept. 17th.

Mrs. Phillips Grade Two class at Chiganois Elementary show their new anti-bullying patches they received for signing a pledge to stamp out bullying at their school. Front row, left to right- Morgan MacPhee, Kiara Morris, Nathan Merriam, Wyatt McBurnie, Johnathan Debay, Hailey McMillan, Olivia MacDonald; 2nd row, 1 to r- Nick Matatall, McKenna MacDougall, Ruby Harrington, Robbie Styles, Kayleigh; 3rd row, 1 to r- Kenley Barton, Cassidy Verheul, Madison Crossman, Mitchell Rector, Cole Rempel; Back row, 1 to r- Mrs. Phillips, Ruby McMasters, Emma Donkin, Login McNeil, Halle Faulkner, Matthew Madore.

Proudly displaying their support for peace! Staff and students at Debert Elementary School formed a huge pink peace sign in the gymnasium in recognition of Stand Up Against Bullying Day on Sept. 17th.

Wildflower Vending

www.wildflowervending.com

570 Prince Street, Truro

843-4042 or 897-7982

"We supplied the Pink T-Shirts!"

Promotional Products
• Business Gifts • Retail Clothing

