

Stand Up Against Bullying Day September 9TH

Great Village Elementary School held several activities to recognize Stand Up Against Bullying Day on Sept. 9th. Students showing pink footprints with their pledge to stand up against bullying, while enjoying their pink recess treat, include: (front left to right) Shelby Wenham, Haley Spencer, Jenna Otterson, Marshall George, Stephen Burnett; (back left to right) April Sharpe, Maggie Dodsworth Lush, Madyson Pugsley and Michael Santos.

Stella Rann gets some help from her teacher Margaret Davidson, as she adds her little pink hand print to the "Helping Hands of Chiganois" wall. (Harrington Photo)

Emma Rutherford and Mary Emma Barnhill show off their pink hands after they added their handprints to the gymnasium wall of "Helping Hands of Chiganois". Stand Up Against Bullying Day was recognized in many area schools on Sept. 9th. (Harrington Photo)

Administrative Assistant, Kim Kaizer and her daughter Mya add their hand prints to "Helping Hands of Chiganois", a project created by the whole school on Sept. 9th in recognition of Stand Up Against Bullying Day. (Harrington Photo)

Lined up and waiting to enjoy their pink recess treat on the playground are Great Village Elementary Primary students (left to right) Autumn Rushton, Kaedenzerae Richards, Liam Boyd, Abby Thompson and Eric George. Pink is the color used to symbolize Stand Up Against Bullying Day on Sept. 9th, and students are encouraged to wear pink to school. (Harrington Photo)

Debert Elementary Grade Four students Emma McCulloch (left) and Lindsay Fraser are working on a puzzle piece they will add to the classroom mural. Students spent the day learning what bullying is, what to do if you are bullied and how to avoid bullying. The second Thursday in Sept. is recognized as Stand Up Against Bullying Day in Nova Scotia. (Harrington Photo)

Ryan Glidden MacKay gets some hand washing assistance from Constable Jane MacDonald. Chiganois students created a wall of pink hand prints recognizing Stand Up Against Bullying Day. (Harrington Photo)

60 Lorne Street, Truro
Nova Scotia B2N 3K3
ph: (902) 897-8900
fax: (902) 897-8989

The Chignecto-Central Regional School Board supports Stand Up to Bullying Day and all students and staff who strive daily to foster safe and respectful learning environments.

