New7Wonders of Nature - Bay of Fundy FEATURED ON CTV’S CANADA AM

CTV’s Jeff Hutcheson helped to promote the New7Wonders of Nature – Bay of Fundy entry on Sept 15th.

He spent time at Hopewell Cape, then arrived by helicopter on 1st Beach at Parrsboro. The Bay of Fundy, at Burncoat along the Noel Shore, is home of the world’s highest recorded tides.

Hutcheson showed viewers the high and low levels of the tide, and some of the fossils that have been found in the Parrsboro and surrounding area. Approximately 600 people joined Jeff in the celebration including the taste testing of a Chowder Competition with Parrsboro Mayor Lois Smith as judge. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photos)
