

Debert Elementary Fall Fiesta

Yum, corn on the cob! This tasty fall treat was enjoyed by Debert Elementary Grade Five student Emma McCulloch.

Blade Turner-MacLean keeps his eye on the fishing line, awaiting his catch of the day, while Carlie Barnhill looks on.

Area businesses and community members donated so many nice prizes for the dime auction it was hard to choose which draws to enter.

Debert Elementary School held their second annual Fall Fiesta on Thursday, Sept. 22nd from 4:30 until 7:00PM, with games, bouncy houses, face painting, book fair, dime auction and so many more fun activities for all ages to enjoy. (Harrington Photos)

Angela Loughead helps Emma Verge as she tries her luck opening the treasure chest. Emma's key did not open the lock, but she was still happy to win a small prize.

Five year old Grayson Spencer had his face painted by Carrie Densmore.

Whee, looks like fun! Five year old Heath Morrissey was all smiles as he slid down the indoor bouncy slide.

Debert's next golf pro! Colin Isnor takes a turn golf putting for a prize.
