Cooking.

As part of the activities a Fashion show was enjoyed by all; Beef, Sheep and Rabbit members showed their animals and were judged. Members received their completion Certificates, congratulations to all.

Top members picked by the 4-H leaders and voted on by the 4-H members themselves were announced: Top Rookie - Deanne Stevens; Top Junior member - Angelica Platnauer; Top Senior member - Emily Prescott and Top All-Around member was Ben van den Hoek. They will represent our club in the fall, against the other 7 4-H clubs in the county. The evening ended with Tug-of-War games.

Members entered their projects and animals in the Exhibition on August 22 and 23 in Truro and were encouraged to participate in the Truro Parade on August 27. Winner from the Provincial Exhibition and county competitions will participate in the Provincial 4-H show in October.

The club will meet again with the starting of the new 4-H year on October 4 at 7 PM at the Bass River Hall.
