The Ship's Log:

CONCERTS ORDER OF THE DAY AT SHIP'S COMPANY THEATRE

By Gleneida Canning

Concerts are order of the day at the Ship's Company Theatre. As our theatre season has pretty well ended this year, we are still planning events and already starting to work on next season. As many of you know by now, our main stage special event "Cash is Back" was cancelled due to reasons beyond our control, however we were very lucky to secure a show that has been touring around the Maritimes for a while. A Tribute to Simon and Garfunkel starring Colin Appleton and Marty Burt came to the stage on September 21, 22, and 23.

On October 4, we are pleased to present in concert "Whitney Rose" and the Devin Cuddy Band. Whitney is originally from Prince Edward Island but has family connections in Amherst and Parrsboro.

Bazil Donovan who co-produced her album and plays in the band Blue Rodeo says this of Whitney: "The reason I was drawn to Whitney was because she was playing real legitimate 1960's era country music, because there is none of that around on the radio anymore. When I heard her songs, I heard what she was doing. I went hey, that's real country music and I'm glad somebody's interested in it"

Devin Cuddy's music has a style all its own, blending New Orleans Blues and Country. Devin is the son of Blue Rodeos' Jim Cuddy. Devin and his band along with Whitney will take to the stage at the Ship at 8pm October 4 in Parrsboro.

On October 11, folk Legend, Valdy will be performing at the Ship's Company Theatre. Valdy has won Juno Awards for Folk Singer of the year, and Folk entertainer of the year. He has produced many albums, four of which are certified gold. Valdy will be performing along with special guest Graham Wardrop. This concert is brought to you by The Ship's Company Theatre and the Parrsboro Band Association. Tickets are available at the ship by calling 254-2003.

So if you're looking for some good music why not head to the ship and take in a concert or two!! Gift certificates are available at the ship and they make great Christmas gifts for those people who have everything. Give a call and check out what's happening or check out our website at www.ship-company.com.
