

ALLY - Stand Up Speak Out Campaign

This year's Stand Up Speak Out Campaign at the Chignecto Central Regional Centre for Education focused on how to be an ALLY, to help reduce incident of harm and improve school climates for students and staff feel valued and a sense of belonging. ALLY:

A-L-L-Y
A- Acceptance (Accepting each other's diversity and also accepting and understanding our own biases; L-

Listen (Listen to other's perspectives and lived experiences. To be an ally we need to listen to those who, we are trying to be an ally. When we own our privilege, we will talk less and listen more;

L- Learn (Learn from others. Being an ally is a journey of understanding. Be open to learning from others. Embrace uncertainty, and learn about microaggressions, implicit bias and privilege; and

Y-You (What actions will you take to be an ally?) Being an ally means taking action. Commit to the actions you will take to Stand up Speak Out when necessary.

Great Village Elementary School's Principal Stephen Fultz reads Filling a Bucket A-Z to students during the Stand Up Speak Out Against Bullying Assembly on Sept. 11th. (Harrington Photo)

Students at Great Village Elementary School wore pink in support of the Stand Up Speak Out Campaign against bullying held board wide on Sept. 11th. Left to right: Alba Maldonado Kerr, Marley Gunn, Alea Richards, Rylan Thompson, Lika Spencer, Kara Cooke and Gage Kinsman. (Harrington Photo)

Mrs. Philips Grade Primary class pose for a photo during gym class with Mr. Gunn displaying their pink t-shirts in support of the CCRCE Stand Up Speak Out Campaign. (Harrington Photo)

Chiganois students Carlee Cavanaugh and Tea Dauphine wore pink t-shirts with great messages for Stand Up Speak Out day on Sept. 11th. (Harrington Photo)

Chiganois Elementary Grade 4/5 teacher Mrs. MacLeod poses for a photo in front of the ALLY poster (A-Acceptance, L- Listen, L- Learn, Y-You) with her nieces Indigo and Sugar Dairy Torrens. (Harrington Photo)

Get the warm & fuzzies

Sign up now and get 5 cents back* for every litre of propane and oil you buy this winter. The earlier you start, the more you get back!

Valid on new, residential main heating accounts with automatic delivery. Must enroll prior to December 31, 2019. Account credit applied* for every litre of oil or propane you purchase by May 31, 2020.

Wilsons Heating

902-895-4429 | wilsonsheating.ca

*See website for conditions.

I'm working for YOU!

SCOTT
ARMSTRONG
 CUMBERLAND-COLCHESTER

AUTHORIZED BY THE OFFICIAL AGENT FOR SCOTT ARMSTRONG

CONSERVATIVE

Truro 902-895-5700
 Amherst 902-661-1507

