

Darrell Currie displays the onboard Honda 5000 generator.

Carl Gallant opens the compartment for one of the two water side dump ports.

Jeff Lantz guides Leo Morrow, Dennis Faber and John McKay as they hook up a hard suction line.

▶▶▶ The Shoreline
Journal

Jeff Lantz (center) gives Dennis Faber and John McKay training on the instrument panel.

Inside the cab, with the digital instrument panel.

Builders of Custom Emergency Vehicles

Customized for the Onslow-Belmont District Fire Brigade

OBFB Chief Greg Muise poses with the new Pumper Tanker and the owners of Lantz Truck Body, Jeff and Allister Lantz.

OBFB Lieutenant John McKay demonstrates the traffic aerial lights.

“We are pleased to have built this vehicle for the Onslow-Belmont Fire Brigade”

Carl Gallant demonstrates the remote control lowering of the ladder.

Shiny instrument panel on the outside back of truck.

1309 Belcher Street, Port Williams, Nova Scotia B0P 1T0
Tel: 902.542.9797 Fax: 902.542.7707 info@lantztruckbody.com

PHOTO FEATURE

Shotokan Tigers Hold Open House

By Linda Harrington

Great Village Shotokan Tigers held an Open House on the lawn at Great Village Baptist Church on Saturday, Sept. 26th with a BBQ and demos by instructors and students.

Regular classes started Monday, Sept. 29th at 6:30PM, and continuing each Monday and Thursday, at the Debert Fire Hall. Covid-19 precautions will be followed.

Great Village Shotokan Tigers started at Faith Baptist Church about 18 years ago, eventually moving to the Great Village Gymnasium and now, because of Covid restrictions in schools, the club is moving to the Debert Fire Hall. The club is FREE to join and new members, age 5 and up, are always welcome.

Thanks to the Along The Shore Health Board the Tigers now have a website at <https://shotokantigers.ca/>, along with their presence on Facebook, Instagram and YouTube Channel.

For more information please phone instructor Mark McNutt at 902-956-1261.

Bjorn and Alexis Merzbach demonstrate a side thrust arm bar self defence move.

Nicole Geldart gets instruction on a proper karate kick from Pete Evans as Ian Forbes holds the padded contact.

Luke Dillman demonstrates a side thrust kick.

Makayla Merzbach uses a karate kick to successfully break the board held by instructor Mark McNutt.