LATTIE, Joseph "Wayne", With heavy hearts we post the obituary of Joseph "Wayne" Lattie. Wayne passed away in the early morning of Friday, August 30, 2024, at the age of 78 years in Colchester East Hants Health Centre, Truro after spending the night before celebrating with his wife and family, their 55th wedding anniversary. He was determined that he would celebrate, keeping track of the date - and he did. Wayne had a personality which drew friends. Our house was full of love and laughter from work mates, friends of our children, and a feeling of home. He was devoted to his family, always willing to listen to and help with any concerns. He loved to feed visitors and was known for his egg rolls from coast to coast and as far away as Indiana. Wayne is survived by his wife of 55 years, Agnes (McCready) Lattie; his daughters, Andrea Waterman and her husband, Gary, of Antigonish, Jodi Gorall of Indiana, and her partner, David Swartz, Sheri McGrath and her husband, Sean of Airdrie; his son, Jeffrey Wayne Lattie. He was the grandfather and great-grandfather of Danielle and Darren Waterman, Brianna Waterman (Ryan Sloan); grandchildren, Emery, Rosa, and soon to be new great granddaughter, Primrose (Tori) currently of Boston, Tyler Lattie, Hayden Gorall and Sophia Gorall of Indiana, Jade (Cody) Churches of Airdrie, Brody, Graysen, Ava and Scarlett (Airdrie), great grandchildren Danielle, Gannon and Braeleigh, Daniel, Trinity, Gabe, Preston, Emmitt, (their mother), Michelle, of Truro; brothers, Ron Lattie, Frank Lattie and wife, Deborah; brother, John Kenney; brothers-in-law, Chuck McCready, Alfred (A.T.) McCready and Jim McCready; sister-in-law, Wanda Wootton, Brampton, Ont. Also his grand puppy, Milo, who loved to tuck his grandpa in at nights including visiting him at the hospital. He would lie in front of Wayne's bedroom door at night... listening... Wayne was predeceased by his mother, Dorothy Pearl Lattie; his father, "Joe Chow"; brother, Gerald Lattie and only sister, Lillian (Lattie) Cochrane. Special thanks to the dialysis ladies and gents and his porter, Jackie, who were so wonderful. He loved you all. The girls who were his night caregivers, Trina, Melanie, and Rhonda... his "angels" who let me sleep. Coleen and Linda, thank you for keeping him laughing in the Infirmary, so happy to have you living near to give him company. You warmed his heart... with the treats too! In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Wayne's memory to the CEHHC Dialysis Unit. A visitation was held on September 5th from 1pm until time of funeral service at 2pm in Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow Street, Truro with the Rev. Lori Ramsey officiating. Reception followed.

CURRIE, Joanna "Joan" (MacLean) - On September 2nd, 2024, our beloved Mother, Grandmother, Great-grandmother and Sister, Joanna "Joan" (MacLean) Currie of Crowes Mills went to her heavenly home to join her husband, Stuart; daughter, Karen Leanne; sisters, Sharon (MacLean) Savoie, Brenda MacLean, Fran (MacLean) Parr, Sandra MacLean and Madora ("Toby" as mom always called her) (MacLean) Archibald; great-grandson, Kylar Conrad and son-in-law, John Wile. She will also be greeted there by her mother, Hazel (Mathews) Robertson; stepfather, Dexter Robertson and father, Frank MacLean. The loved ones who mourn her loss are her daughter, Jane (Currie) Wile; chosen daughter, Bonny (Danny) Takeda; sons, Dan (Heather Hamilton) Currie, Jamie (Michele) Currie and Tim (Doug Ross) Currie; brothers, Philip MacLean, David MacLean and chosen brother, David Greene, along with many grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nephews and nieces. Ok, this is getting too long so here are the arrangements - Mom didn't want a funeral, so we compromised to have a graveside service on Sunday, September 8th in the Middle Road Cemetery in Debert, with her brother, Pastor David MacLean officiating and friend, Steve McCabe singing Mom's favorites. All are welcome to attend, but she left directions that we are to wear Bright Colors as it is HER celebration. Following her graveside tribute, there was a Meet & Greet in the Debert Fellowship Centre. A Special thanks goes to all the staff of Shiretown Nursing Home in Pictou, Mom was not a client to them, she was family. Also, to Colchester Community Funeral Home for making this time so easy and effortless. If you would like to make a donation in her memory, her choice would be the Debert Fellowship Centre or Parkinson Canada.

TEDFORD, Irene Elizabeth (Swan) - Age 86, Pugwash. We are saddened to announce the passing of our mother, Irene (Swan) Tedford after a short illness. Irene passed away peacefully on September 4, 2024, in East Cumberland Lodge, Pugwash. She was the last surviving member of her immediate family. Irene was born on October 14, 1937, in Denmark, NS and has lived in and around the Truro area for most of her life. She loved her family, doing puzzles and shopping. Irene was a kind and compassionate person. She had a great sense of humour. She was predeceased by her husband, Robert Tedford. Irene is survived by her two children, Dayn (Melanie) and Dawn (John Dewit); her grandchildren, Kasey (Trevor), Stephanie (Paul), Jonathan, Samantha, Kasson and several nieces and nephews. She was considered a special mom to Ken and Tim. Irene will also be missed by her special granddog, Sadie. The family would like to give a special thanks for the compassionate care that Irene received during her time at East Cumberland Lodge. Donations to Alzheimer Society of Nova Scotia in Irene's memory would be greatly appreciated. Burial has already taken place. Arrangements have been entrusted to Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow St., Truro.

COOKE (Rutherford), Irene Elize, died in Cedarstone Enhanced Care, Truro on Saturday, September 7, 2024, at the age of 105 years. Born on July 22, 1919, in Bass River to the late Arnie and Verna (Gilbert) Rutherford, she was the eldest and the only daughter with three brothers, Earle, Leonard and Lloyd. Irene attended the Little Bass River School from primary to grade nine, then moved to the Bass River School for grades ten through twelve. She then went on to Normal College in Truro. Irene taught school in Portapique, Montrose and Halfway River before travelling to Ypsilanti, Michigan, USA to learn how to teach deaf students. She returned to Nova Scotia and taught at the Halifax School for the Deaf for three years. She married Lloyd Raymond Cooke and together they had three children, Helen, Myrna and Donald. Irene was a great worker and supporter of Riverside United Church and the Bass River Heritage Society. Besides her parents, Irene was predeceased by her husband, Lloyd; daughter, Helen; great granddaughter, Destiny and brothers, Earle, Lloyd and Leonard. She is survived by her daughter, Myrna (Gordon); son, Donald (Wendy); five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. In lieu of flowers, donations in Irene's memory may be made to a charity of choice. A funeral service was held on Sunday, September 15th in Riverside United Church, Bass River. A fellowship followed the service in the church hall.

GAMBLE, Madeline Ella - 104, Truro, formerly of Bass River, passed away peacefully on Sunday, September 8, 2024, at Shannex Debert Court, Debert. THOMPSON, Christian, - It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Christian Thompson. Born in Halifax, NS, he was the son of Delia Fleck and the late Robert Thompson. Christian was a dedicated family man and could often be seen at the hockey rink, basketball court and baseball field with his wife, Amanda cheering on their son, Eli. Christian was always happy to lend a hand to anyone in need and was a friend to all. He spent hours building Lego with his son, Eli. Colchester Chamber of Commerce, sports and loved taking trips with his family. He enjoyed his job at Truro Nissan and was a great Boss and team player with his staff. He is survived by the love of his life, Amanda Brenton and the other love of his life, his beautiful boy, Eli; mother, Delia (Gary) Fleck; sisters, Sylvia (Bruce) Conrod, Corine Thompson; mother-in-law, Nancy Brenton; sisters-in-law, Michelle (Matt) MacDonald and Kaitlyn (Nate) Blezius; niece, Jessica Stack-Langford and several nieces and nephews. He was predeceased by his father, Robert Thompson and father-in-law, Ron Brento. He loved a family night in, watching a movie or Star Wars. He was involved in the community through the Truro & n. He was truly loved by all who knew him and will be greatly missed. We love you to the moon and back. "I love You to infinity and Beyond, Daddy." Love, Eli. Donations in Christian's memory may be made to the SPCA or to a charity of choice. There will be no formal funeral service. A celebration of life visitation was held on September 19th in Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow Street, Truro, NS. Condolences may be made by visiting: www.ColchesterCommunity.com

BENJAMIN, Lynda Joan, It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Lynda Joan (Stevenson) Benjamin at the age of 80 years. A lifelong resident of Hilden, Lynda passed away on September 13, 2024, while a resident at Debert Court. Lynda is survived by her daughter, Cheryl Benjamin; son-in-law, Andrew Weatherbee, and grandson, Finn Weatherbee, and a loving family from coast to coast. She was predeceased by her husband, David Franklin Benjamin. Lynda took great pride in her professional career, beginning with the Children's Aid Society of Colchester County and retiring from the federal civil service after many years. After retirement, she returned to her roots and served with the Board of Directors of the Children's Aid Society. Lynda valued her communities, whether they be of geography, of service, or of activity: she was a member of the Hilden United Church, Beta Sigma Phi, and the Brookfield Golf Club. She was a lover of beautiful baking at Christmas, playing bridge, completing the daily cryptoquote, and travelling with dear friends. Her journey through Alzheimer's was difficult; memories filled with love and laughter remain. We will remember her always as we sit on the deck by the river with family and friends. Donations may be made to the Hilden Volunteer Fire Brigade or the Hilden United Church. A funeral service was held September 28th in Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow St., Truro, NS. Rev. Phillip Kennedy officiated Reception followed. Interment at a later date. Online condolences available at www.ColchesterCommunity.com
