

Three blooming beauties! Cecil and Carol Dexter had a top prize sweep in the Decorative Dahlia (Over 8 inch) Class at the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition. (Harrington Photo)

Oh August

*August came with bursts of sunshine
To warm the soggy earth
After all July's wet weather
August was the summer's birth*

*July's rain so steady and the cloudy skies
Kept everyone depressed and sorry
Then August came with welcome sun
To tell a different story.*

*August days with lots of sun
Means joy and fun for all
Ripening fruits and berries too
Leads summer into fall.*

Great Village & Area Notes

By Florence Adams

Mary Ann Palmeter from Geneva spent two weeks visiting her aunt, Donalda Nelson. She left for home on August 26th. Betty and George Hudson spent a few days in August on a trip to Cape Breton.

The Farmers Market is flourishing with an extensive array of vendors. Harlan Akerman enjoyed a visit from his daughter, Gail, and son, David and wife, Gail. They arrived from Ontario in early August to celebrate Harlan's birthday.

Robert and Natalie Adams, Montreal, with grandson, Bailey, recently spent some time visiting family and friends. Ernest and Gerene Robinson, Canning and Laura MacKinnon visited with their sister, Muriel Spencer on August 13th.

Margaret Dennies and daughter, Amanda, spent August 17-20 in PEI to see several ballgames. Robert and Natalie Adams, Marie and Jack Peppard and Judi Leeman, hosted a family barbeque on August 22nd, which I attended and enjoyed very much.
