

THE Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition

4-H Day August 21, 2012

The following local 4-H Club members received special Awards on 4-H Day at the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition.

Glooscap Trail: Top Overall Club, Cake Decorating Judge- Anna MacFarlane, Crafts Competition- Emily Prescott, Fashion Show Competition- Emily Prescott.

Onslow Belmont: Woodworking Competition- Tristan Tolken, Sheep Clipping Competition- Ryan Porter and Fabian Hamilton, Woodworking Project- Thomas Harrington, Environment Member- Brett Crossman, Light Horse Judge- Megan Wynn, Sheep Project- Fabian Hamilton, Scrapbooking Judge and Scrapbooking Project- Katie Ferguson, Draft Horse Project- Michael Congdon, Dog Judge- Laura Brenton, Crafts Project- Brianna Crosby, Crafts Judge- Jada Totten.

Clifton: Champion Tug of War, Dairy Judge- Christina Straathof, Horse Basic Member- Samantha Rushton, English Light Horse- Erin Groves, Rabbit Judge and Project- Erin Groves, Self Determined- Erin Groves, Sewing Judge- Gillian Blackburn, Sewing Project- Samantha Rushton, Swine Judge- Christina Straathof, Vet Science Member- Lane Yuill, Floriculture Project- Marla McNutt, Goat Judge- Christina Straathof, Goat Showmanship- Jenna Waugh, Photography Project- Arjen Blaauwendraat, Champion Angus- Corey McLellan, Champion Beef- Jenna Waugh, Champion Jersey- Riley Masters, Flower Arranging Competition- Marla McNutt, Record Keeping Competition- JT Thompson.

Michael Congdon, Onslow Belmont, showing sheep in the Champion Showmanship Class.

Onslow Belmont 4-H Club in the MacMillan Show Center for the 4-H Award's Presentation.

Clifton Club members await for award presentations at the closing of 4-H Day at the NS Prov Exhibition.

Many dignitaries were on hand for the Grand Opening of the NS Provincial Exhibition held prior to the 4-H Award's Presentation on August 21st.

As a finalist in the Champion Showmanship Class, Amy Harrington, Onslow Belmont, had to show a dairy cow. In this competition 4-H members take turns showing each of the live-stock entries.

Glooscap Trail 4-H Club won the award for Top Club at the 2012 NS Provincial Exhibition.

Erin Groves, Clifton Club, accepts the award for Top English Light Horse Project from presenter Ciara Congdon. Erin also won Champion Rabbit Project and Champion Rabbit Showmanship and Top Self Determined Member.

Ella Porter, Onslow Belmont, wasn't going to let the size of this team of oxen give her any worry in the Champion Showmanship Class.

Emily Prescott, Glooscap Trail 4-H Club accepts the award for Top Crafts Competitor from Donna Cox. Emily also won top Fashion Show Competitor.

Marla McNutt, Clifton Club, accepts the award for Top Flower Arrangement Competition from Patti Sharpe, President of the Great Village Garden Club.

Clifton 4-H Club won the Championship Tug of War. Team members included: Front 1 to r- Jacob Works, Holly Masters, David Sandeson, Jenna Waugh, Jelisa Waugh; Back 1 to r- Caleb McCurdy, Riley Masters, David McCurdy, Gillian Blackburn, Corey McLellan, Ella McCurdy, Jonathan Waugh, Alexander Burrows, Erin Groves.

Nicole MacKenzie, Stewiacke Valley, won Champion Livestock Showman.

4-H Hostess Emma Bush presents Fred Hamilton, Chairman of the Exhibition Committee, with a thank you plaque from the 4-H Clubs.

Onslow Belmont 4-H Club won the Consolation Tug of War. Team Members included: Front (1 to r) Mitchell Manning, Michael Congdon, Luke Ferguson, Ryan Porter, Ella Porter, Megan Wynn; Back (1 to r) Coach- Margaret Congdon, Ciara Congdon, Andrea Hamilton, Fabian Hamilton, Taylor Hoyt, Jada Totten, Coach- Lauchie MacEachern.

Anna MacFarlane, Glooscap Trail 4-H Club accepts the award for Top Cake Decorating Project from hostess Kate Baits.