

HARVEST 4 HUNGER HOSTS THE INCREDIBLE PICNIC AT Captain Cob's Crazy Corn Conundrum TO RAISE FUNDS FOR

Hot buttery corn on the cob, hard to beat this at a picnic!

These guys know how to liven up a party. Awesome music!

Rev. Gerry Kerr, of Trinity United Church, held a Church Service at the Corn Maze prior to the start of the picnic.

Rebecca Dodsworth-Lush and Amy Harrington prepared hundreds of wild blueberry ice cream cones and shortcakes.

The "corn box" play area was a popular spot for the younger farmers.

This cow has the moves! Daisy manages a wave as she zooms by on the zipline.

The ticket and donation booth was a busy spot throughout the day.

A quiet time in the mini-maze was enjoyed by some of the younger folk.

Eric Jennings is no stranger to the art of scooping ice cream, lending a hand in one of the food booths at the picnic.

Priscilla Jennings enjoyed a trip down the zipline.

A few scallywags were spotted on the jumping pillow.

Fred Hamilton and Ben Cavanaugh provided horse and wagon rides around the corn maze.

Champion oyster shucker Janet Callaghan gave an informative demonstration and there was quite a line-up for those wanting to try an oyster.

Local NS Products

"EVERY DEPARTMENT at the Market is full of Quality Local Products produced by our friends and neighbours!"

A very successful select Nova Scotia IncrEdible Picnic was hosted by Harvest 4 Hunger NS at the Masstown Market's Captain Cob's Crazy Cornundrum Corn Maze on Sunday, August 19th. Thank you to all those who helped make this event a huge success. Nearly 500 people spent a beautiful Sunday afternoon playing games, eating local foods, listening to wonderful music and sharing community spirit. In the end close to $4000 was realized for the Canadian Food Grains Bank Project.

Captain Cob's Crazy Cornundrum Corn Maze and Play Area will be open 7 days a week until Sept. 3rd and will then open weekends, starting at 4:00PM on Friday for special corn maze activities including "Maze by Flashlight", followed by Saturday's and Sunday's from 11AM until dusk.

Shivers and Timbers, the friendly goats in the petting zoo, suggest you give the new zip line a try while Buck and Ears, the rabbits, think you will enjoy putting some bounce in your step on the jumping pillow. Challenge your friends to a game of capture the pirate flag or see how fast you can solve the pirate ship maze.

$1 from each admission is donated to the Harvest 4 Hunger- NS Canadian Food Grains Project.

The Corn Maze and Play Area are a wonderful location for a birthday party, family picnic or other gatherings. Call 662-2477 for special group rates and bookings.
