

Wild Blueberry Harvest Festival

The Wild Blueberry Harvest Festival took place August 15th- 30th in communities throughout Central Nova Scotia. The kick-off event was held August 15th at the Marigold Centre, Truro. Inclement weather forced the festivities indoors this year but the fabulous food, fun and entertainment continued. (Harrington Photos)

7-year old Moira Todd gives the Wild Blueberry mascot a big hug.

Aedan Ettinger gets his face painted by the talented Charlie Little.

Members of the Cobequid Spartans Gymnastic team were on hand to promote their club and hand out free wrist bands.

Seven year old Zachary Rogers was enjoying the Wild Blueberry Harvest Kick-off with his grandmother.

Tyler Gorman and Ella Henderson were passing out ballots from Downtown Truro for one of three draws for $100 in Downtown Truro bucks.

Farieda Gabbani serves up a wild blueberry smoothie to Larry Anthony, raising funds for the Truro Sport Heritage Society.

Millie Hurst, Carol Adams and Michael Stokoe were busy serving up wild blueberry crisp for the Bill Rawlinson Men's Outreach Fund at St. John's Anglican Church.

Contestants in the wild blueberry pie eating contest are ready for battle. left to right- Chris MacPhee (Leon's Manager), Const. Robert Hunka (Truro Police Service), Jillian MacLaughlin (former winner of Big Brother Canada), Ryan Cook (Truro Daily News), Skylar Blackie (Truro Fire Service), Keith Gillis (G&G Computer), RCMP Cpl. Addie MacCallum, Alyssa Roy (Big Dog/Cat Country Cruiser).

MP Scott Armstrong and Truro's Deputy Mayor- Ward 3 Danny Joseph toast the festivities with a wild blueberry smoothie.

Wild Blueberry Producers Association of Nova Scotia
 168 Dakota Road, P.O. Box 119, Debert, NS B0M 1G0
 Telephone: 902/662-3306 Fax: 902/662-3284
 Email: wbpans@ns.aliantzinc.ca
 Website: <http://nswildblueberries.com/>

Suppers, dances, breakfasts and plenty more fun and festivities were held throughout the Wild Blueberry Harvest Festival. A great way to celebrate a crop that is grown throughout our Shoreline area.

www.nswildblueberries.com OR www.wildblueberryfest.com

Visit our website for health information and recipes. We are a major sponsor of Wild Blueberry Harvest Festival held in the last two weeks of August. The wild blueberry industry is a major contributor to the provincial economy.