

PHOTO FEATURE

Onslow Belmont 4-H had an outstanding 2 days at the NSPE
(Natalie Porter Photos)

Ciara Congdon, Onslow-Belmont 4-H Club showing her rabbit during 4-H day at NSPE.

Onslow-Belmont 4-H dairy calves at the NSPE.

Ian Kittilsen uses his beef calf as a pillow.

OB 4-H'er Sarah Kittilsen with her lamb.

Joe Nicholson, the new General Manager for the Nova Scotia Exhibition welcomes sponsors and guests to the 70th NSPE.

Amanda Langille and Tanya Colburne, of Langille & Colburne, the 2016 NSPE organizers.

Michael Congdon (right), of Onslow Belmont 4H Club received Grand Champion Showman and was presented with the trophy by Rebecca O'Connell, of Truro Agromart while Marla McNutt (left), of Clifton Club received Reserve Champion.
See more NSPE and 4-H photos on pages 20 and 21.

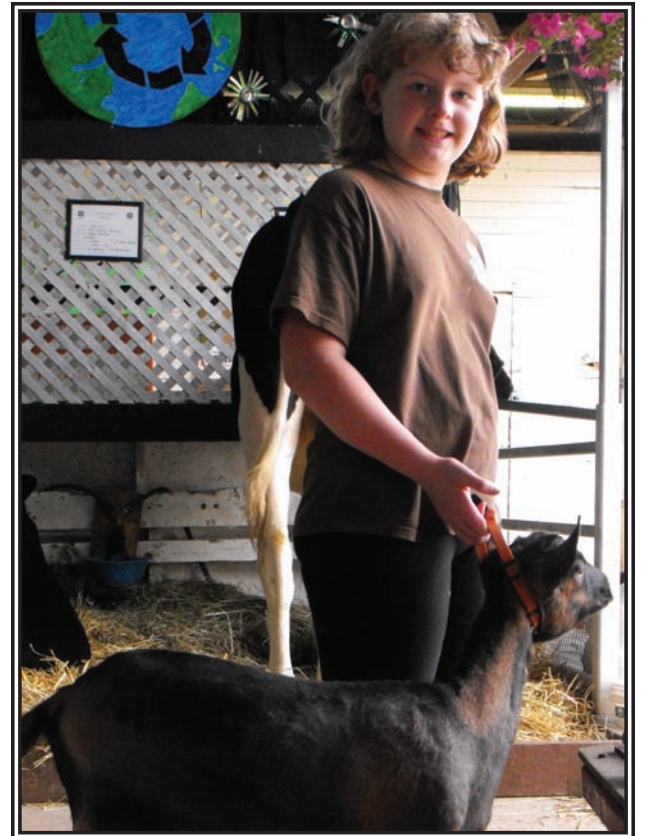

Masstown Market was the Presenting Sponsor for the 2016 NSPE and Laurie Jennings, of Masstown Market encouraged other local businesses and the community at large to continue to support this important annual event.

Vaughn Dickie has been to the NSPE every one of its 70 years and he was chosen as the honorary Chairperson for 2016. Vaughn gave a brief history of the 70 years at the Opening Ceremonies.

NSPE held the official opening of the 70th anniversary of the exhibition in the Industrial Building on August 22, following a reception for sponsors and dignitaries in the Farm Equipment Museum.

Photos by Linda Harrington

Marion Porter a OB 4-H Club member shown with her goat.

Members of the Samqwan Boyz Millbrook drumming group performed at the Opening Ceremonies for the 2016 Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition.

MLA Karen Casey made a presentation to Stu Rath, Chairman of the Nova Scotia Provincial Exhibition Commission, at the 2016 Opening Ceremonies.

CENTRAL EQUIPMENT INC.

"Your Local Dealer In Agricultural, Industrial And Lawn Equipment Since 1958"

Ph. 895-2888

MASSEY FERGUSON

32 Lwr. Truro Road

www.centralequip.ns.ca