

Golf Local, Stay Local & Shop Local

Nova Scotia is known for many great things - scenery, seafood, fresh air, wide open spaces, friendly and helpful people.

The province's other great asset are many fantastic golf courses located throughout the province.

As we work to improve the economy and help other local businesses, we suggest this fall to enjoy lots of golfing and stay close to your home community. Here are three excellent courses...

...almost in your back yard.

Brule Point Golf Course

Oceanfront course, beautiful views, and now 14 holes. 5 new dunes-style holes with traditional Scottish links mounding, fescues, bunkering, and generous bent-grass greens. 9-hole, par 36, 3000 yd (18 holes, par 72, 5933 yd). Rating 66.4; Slope 103. Driving range and rentals; licensed. Green fee players welcome. Located at 738

Brule Point Road, Tatamagouche, NS Ph: 902-657-4653; E-mail: club-house@brulepointgolf.ca

Parrsboro Golf Club

9-hole, par 33, 2343 yd. Rating 62.1; Slope 97. Panoramic view of the Bay of Fundy & Minas Basin. Visitors welcome; not necessary to book tee-off times. Located at Two Island Road, Parrsboro, NS Ph: 902-254-2733; E-mail: membership@parrsborogolf.ca

Fox Harb'r Golf Resort & Spa

Since opening in 2000, Fox Harb'r Golf Resort & Spa has been consistently ranked among the top Destination Resorts in Canada by leading travel consumer reports and industry peers. Fox Harb'r is one of only five 5-star resorts in Canada.

Situated in picturesque Wallace on the Northumberland Shore, our resort offers classic elegance on a grand scale with a variety of activities including the award-winning Fox Harb'r championship golf course and par 3 course; tennis centre; sporting lodge featuring skeet shooting and sporting clay; a luxury spa and wellness centre; a private 4885 foot airstrip; deep sea marina, and the Five-Star Great Room dining room and The Willard restaurant for casual dining.

Whether you are staying with us or just visiting the area, visitors can enjoy our 18-hole championship course and our par-3 course, both designed by Golf Hall of Fame architect Graham Cooke. This par-72 (7253 yards) course is a magnificent blend of both Scottish links and traditional parkland golf situated along the spectacular rugged sea coast of the Northumberland Strait and lured away from the sea to sheltered forests, expansive wetlands and deep rock-lines lakes.

Fox Harb'r has a course rating of 75.4 and a slope of 141. Our Par 3 Short Course (1039 yards) is set along the beautiful Nova Scotia shoreline with an impeccably maintained layout which features deceptively challenging holes. Visitors are asked to book at least 48 hours in advance. Located at 1337 Fox Harbour Road, Wallace, NS Ph: 902-257-1801; Toll Free: 866-257-1801, E-mail: mail@foxharbr.com

Green Fees starting at $15/adult on our 'new 5' Juniors only $12

Bernie Burke Memorial Golf Tournament

ANOTHER RESOUNDING SUCCESS

By Patricia Burke

Fifty one avid golfers participated in the 16th Bernie Burke Memorial Golf Tournament held at the Parrsboro Golf Club on August 19, 2016. There was a bit of fog in the early morning as golfers got into position and with the sound of the horn began to play a fun game of golf, meet new friends and most of all to show their support to "The Hall" and the SCCCC all in Parrsboro.

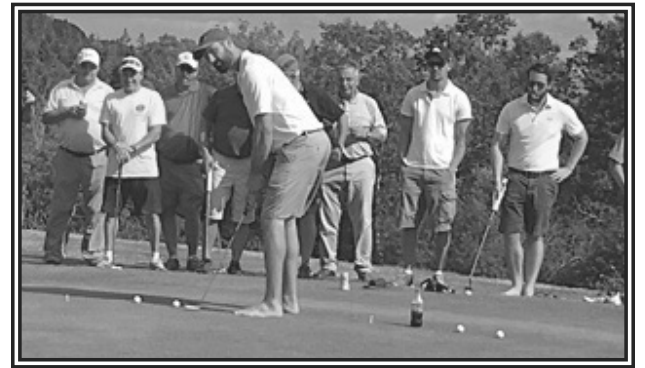

As the 1st nine were finished, it was realized the 2016 Ford Fiesta was not won. The Car & the insurance was provided by C E Sargent & Son in Parrsboro and Archway insurance. During the 18 hole scramble tournament there were several contests being played for. The winners of the overall tournament were:

1st place: Tom & Peter MacLaren and John Atkinson; 2nd Place: Kevin Perrin, Gary Carter and Peter McCabe. Winner of the putting contest was Tristen Dimmer, Dartmouth.

Clarke Hannah, Oxford was winner of the longest drive for men. Erin Mac Isaac-Dartmouth picked up the prize for Closest to the Line for the ladies.

Garnet Hendren was Closest to the Pin on 9 & 18 and 3 & 12. Most Honest Golfers were Sue & Carl Willigar & Judy Durning, while Longest Drive by Air honours went to Dave Gilder, Vancouver BC.

The organizers would like to thank everyone that participated, volunteered, donated prizes, gave financially or helped in any way possible to make this tournament such a great success.
