

'Debert Days' is Back!

After an eight year hiatus the family fun day was back, taking place on August 13th at Colchester Community Park. There were three days leading up to the main event with a Miss/Master Debert Contest, Potluck Supper, Softball Game and Family Dance. A parade led from the Debert Legion to the celebrations with Best Commercial and Best Overall going to Barnes Trucking, Best Children's to Miss/Master Debert, Best Service- Debert Medical and Best Musical- Rob Stone. After the Opening Ceremonies there was a Dog Show, Pie Eating Contest, Antique Car Show, Log Sawing and Nail Driving contests and so much more. The weather cooperated and a wonderful time was had by all. Congratulations to the organizers, you did an amazing job.

Kisses have gone up substantially in price since the Peanuts days of 5 cents each, as Shane Totten offers a crisp $50 bill to Matt Priest.

Stetson Sullivan, Shyann Sullivan, Hayley Roma and Trinity Nieforth have fun in the Photobooth at Debert Days.

Organizers did an amazing job of creating a carnival atmosphere, complete with ticket booths.

Melanie Smith, and her young son Dylan, put Riley through his agility routine for the Dog Show at Debert Days.

Tony Phillips drives the tractor for a colourful "Bees and Berries" float.

Mayor Bob Taylor was driving in fine style!

Debert Day organizers Marie Benoit and Shannon Barnes present Parade Marshalls Phyllis and Gordon McCully with a token of appreciation.

Cyber Cop, Truro Police Service Community Mascot, was a popular attraction for the kids.

The West Colchester Cobras were well represented in the parade.

Masstown Market's Eric Jennings was driver for the Debert Little Miss and Master float.
