

Natal Day in Masstown

RCMP Constable G.B Wiley shows Thomas White, Stephanie Debay and Douglas White the onboard computer system in the cruiser at Masstown Natal Day Celebrations. He chatted with them about the different sirens he uses when approaching an intersection to get the attention of drivers and explained the computer dispatch and video screen.

Landon Wells was pretty excited to get a sucker from Onslow Belmont Fire Brigade's Carl Gallant. Landon was at the Masstown Natal Day Celebrations with his grand parents and brother Easton.

Natal Day activities, held at the Masstown Communities Park on Aug. 7th, included a BBQ, entertainment, games for the kids and a visit with the Teddy Bear Nurse.

National Stitch-in-Public Day September 23RD

By Kim Fielding

The Marigold Guild of Needle Arts (MGNA) will be participating in the sixth annual EAC National Stitch-in-Public Day on Saturday, September 23rd. MGNA members will be stitching 10:00am - 3:00pm

MacQuarrie Maker Lab, Colchester-East Hants Public Library, Prince St., Truro, NS. Come see us at the library as we stitch our way through our national EAC Stitch-in-Public Day!

info@marigoldguildofneedlearts.ca

Needlework is an ancient form of artistic expression applied to any number of surfaces. With today's modern technologies, there are numerous threads, fibers, flosses, fabrics, buttons, charms, ribbons, yarns and many other mediums that can be embellished with embroidery.

The Marigold Guild of Needle Arts is one of many chapters of the EAC (Embroiderers' Association of Canada Inc.; www.eac.ca) who are still stitching to their hearts content after 34 years, many beautiful items of both practical and decorative means. Needle art is both for the young and the old and everyone in between (including men) and with this in mind our numerous EAC chapters all across Canada are set to promote their local chapter as well as our national EAC during the week before or after National Stitch-in-Public Day.

It is our hope that anyone interested in learning more about needlework of any kind will seek us out on Saturday, September 23rd and visit with us at our monthly workshop meetings.

Whether you are a non-stitcher or a stitcher wanna-be, or one who dabbles in cross-stitch or any other embroidery technique, you are most welcome to join us.
