

Senior's Showcase

Thursday, September 28, 2017, 9 am to 1pm
at the Best Western Glengarry, Willow Street, Truro

DOWNTOWN TRURO

Hosted by:
The Downtown Truro Partnership.

Patterson Law – Senior's Showcase Exhibitor

One of the many exhibitors to the Senior's Showcase organized by the Downtown Truro Partnership in September at Best Western Glengarry will be Patterson Law.

At the event the law firm's representatives will focus up services to seniors which will include discussion on Estate Planning with topics such as Wills, Powers of Attorney and Personal Care Directives. A company brochure section on Wills includes: Why should I have a will?; I have an old Will. Should I update it and Who should I appoint as my attorney.

The explanation suggests a will determines how your property is distributed after your death. Without a will, you are said to have died "intestate" and the division of your property is determined by formula under the "Intestate Succession Act". Administration of the estate of an intestate person can be complex and costly. Furthermore, the ultimate division of assets may not reflect the wishes of the deceased.

Under the category, Should

I update an Old will, the suggestion is an estate plan should be reviewed every 5 years. It should be updated sooner if there are changes as a result of: marriage, separation / divorce, death or incapacity of a family member, birth or adoption; significant financial changes, moving between provinces and purchase or sale of a home or business.
