MacInnes Offering for District 10

By Maurice Rees

Former District 9 councillor, Doug MacInnes has announced his intention to seek a seat on Colchester council in the November 6th special election to fill the District 10 seat vacated when 12 year veteran councillor, Tom Taggart, won the provincial election to be MLA for Colchester North replacing Karen Casey, who did not reoffer.

In early 2020, MacInnes relocated his residence to the Masstown area, and is very familiar with the Municipal issues of the area. His roots are District 10 because both mother and father's families are originally from the Great Village area

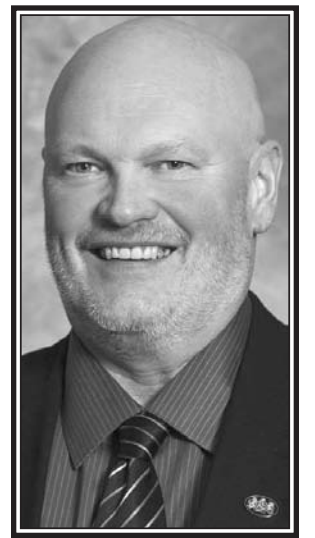

He feels experience gained as a former County Councillor for District 9 will allow him the opportunity to get to work on local issues of District 10 residents immediately. In a recent interview, MacInnes expressed his passion for residents and the area. He eagerly looks forward to continuing working on issues such as high speed internet and the amazing opportunities the designation as a Geo Park has provided the area of District 10.

MacInnes is an active community volunteer which help him to be extremely understanding of the concerns residents are expressing in these changing times. Currently he keeps busy volunteering on community organizations as the President of the Colchester Community Workshop; President of the Lower Onslow Community Society; Board member of the Scotia Pool Society; Member of the Truro & Colchester Chamber of Commerce and a very proud Big Brother volunteer for the past eight years.

He has been actively involved in Economic Development throughout Colchester County for several decades as a former small business owner; currently a senior manager with Wilsons Heating. He believes supporting the local business community is extremely important and is looking forward to getting back to the Council table and being a supportive voice for local businesses.

MacInnes welcomes those who have concerns, or wish to Doug MacInnes will be a candidate in the by-election in Colchester's District 10 special election to replace Tom Taggart who was elected MLA for Colchester North on August 17th.

Scouts Canada Continues the Adventure this Fall

lines on group sizes and steps to follow for safe in-person adventures.

"Providing a safe environment for young people in Canada to connect with their peers and get outdoors is our number one priority," said Andrew Price, Executive Commissioner & CEO. "Since the onset of the pandemic our safety standards have provided a space for thousands of youth to enjoy a fun and adventurous program at a time when they need it most."

Many Scout Groups across Canada are currently in modified Stage Four of the plan that includes indoor gatherings up to 25 people and outdoor gatherings up to 50 people, cohorts (Patrols) of a maximum 8 youth, and overnight camping allowed in cohorts only, with tents or shelters preferred. Face coverings and physical distancing are required. Some provinces are in Stage Five, which lifts internal restrictions for Scouting activities while deferring to all municipal and provincial public health restrictions. All Scout Groups will abide by enhanced health and safety measures put in place by local public health units.

For details of each stage, and to determine the current stage for a local Group, view the map at Scouts.ca/Covid19
