BROWN, Ethel Doreen, Truro, daughter of the late Melissa Jane Newton, was born September 9, 1936, and passed away peacefully in the Colchester East Hants Heath Centre, Truro on August 20, 2022. She is survived by daughters, Gayle (Chris Foote), Nanoose Bay, British Columbia, Cherri (Todd Brown), Lower Sackville, and Cindy Franke, Calgary, Alberta and son, Stephan (Bonnie), Salmon River. She is also survived by much loved grandchildren, Kyle and Jordan. Ethel, born in Salmon River, lived her whole life in or near Truro and was always a proud ambassador for the area. Known for having boundless energy, a fiercely independent spirit, though friendly and welcoming, she greatly enjoyed raising her family in Central Onslow with summer days spent taking her children and any neighborhood kids available to the beach or favorite swimming hole. These happy times often ended with Ethel barbequing endless hotdogs or hamburgers for all, or with cooking up buckets of clams after a day at the beach at Five Islands Park. A favorite treat of Ethel's was an order of deep-fried clams (not clam strips!) and fries from Granny's Restaurant near the Park. Later in life, Ethel worked for many years at the Chow Family restaurant in Truro where her energy and friendliness found a welcoming home. She always enjoyed meeting people and was proud of providing fast and friendly service. After retirement, Ethel loved being part of the lives of her grandchildren, Kyle and Jordan and was very happy to take them to activities, to watch them in school concerts, and was extremely proud to see them head off to university. Throughout her life, Ethel was happiest when in motion. She was a competitive curler at the Truro Curling Club, played softball, took daily 'walks' (often described as 'runs' by those attempting to go with her). Her favorite place to walk, and probably her favorite place to be, was Victoria Park in Truro. She walked the trails as often as she could and always appreciated the beauty and peacefulness of the forest, streams, and waterfalls. Many will remember encountering her there and having a friendly chat in her beloved place. Donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society. There will be no visitation and a private family interment is planned for a later date. Arrangements have been entrusted to Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow St., Truro, NS. Expressions of sympathy may be e-mailed to: ethelb@mail.com.

MacDONALD, John "Jack" Falconer - Age 93, Truro, died peacefully on August 21, 2022, at the home of his daughter after a brief illness. Born on June 20, 1929, in Pictou County, he was the son of the late John P. and Kathleen (MacBeth) MacDonald. He is survived by his children, Wayne, East Mountain, Marion, Upper North River and Darryl (Gayle), Dartmouth; his pride and joy, granddaughters, Gracie and Lily; sister, Sharon (Reg) MacLeod, Greenhill and Sandy (Lisa), White Plains, NY as well as numerous nieces and nephews. Besides his parents, he was predeceased by his wife, Audrey Mae (Connell); sister, Lillian MacKenzie, Alberta and brother, Fraser, British Columbia. Jack spent his whole working career in the heavy equipment industry, first with R.A. Douglas then with Wilson Equipment, followed by Atmos Equipment during which he made many lifelong friends. Following his "retirement," he started his own company selling and installing outdoor furnaces and Boulder Buster Equipment. After his second "retirement," he continued to make regular trips to the dockyards in Halifax with his friend, Bryan to scout out new loads or with Bruce to drive the "get away car" on a repossession. He rarely missed a Ritchie Brothers auction attending his last one just a short time before he passed. He was an avid hockey fan. In his younger years playing for the Pictou County Pontiacs as well as the Trenton Scotias and when Wayne and Darryl started playing, he became the coach of many amateur Bearcat hockey teams, travelling around the Maritimes and into the United States with them. He was inducted into the Pictou County Sports Hall of Fame in 1991. One of his proudest moments was seeing Gracie graduate this past June and he was very proud of Lily for starting her own dog-sitting business. He will be missed. Arrangements have been entrusted to Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow St., Truro, NS. A Funeral service was held August 26th in the First United Church, 711 Prince St., Truro, NS. Interment followed in Watson Cemetery. Online condolences may be sent to the family by visiting: www.ColchesterCommunity.com

MILLER, Wilfred Leo - 84, Great Village, passed away peacefully on Monday, August 22, 2022, at Colchester East Hants Health Centre, Truro. Born in Londonderry, he was the son of the late Harold "Pat" and Mary Ellen (Fountain) Miller. Wilfred is survived by his wife of 58 years, Fronz (Spencer) Miller; son, Scott Miller (Mindy), Great Village; daughter, Patti Miller (Les Brown), Truro; proud grandfather of Laura Sharpe (Brandon Schwarz), April Sharpe and Erin Miller. Wilfred is also survived by his sisters, Elaine Mack-innon (Jim - deceased), Shirley Cooke (Doug) and Audrey Spencer (Logan); brother, Glenn Miller (Dennise). Along with his parents, he was predeceased by an infant daughter and his sister, Fern Hegan (Art). Graveside service was held Saturday, August 27, 2022, at Mahon Cemetery, 8480 Highway 2, Great Village. Arrangements have been entrusted to Mattatall - Varner Funeral Home, 55 Young Street, Truro.
