Lindsay, Brian - It is with very heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Brian Leo Lindsay, age 68, loving husband to Debbie (MacPhee) Lindsay of Belmont on August 9, 2023, at home. Brian is lovingly remembered as Deb's Side kick. Brian and Deb started dating when Deb was thirteen and Brian, fifteen. They have stuck together through thick and thin, the good times and especially the bad, but always came out the other side together and stronger. Brian was a Wood's man by trade, but a Jack-of-all-trades at home and their camp. He really enjoyed his weekends and friends at the camp, but one of Brian's most prized treasures was his fur daughter, Missy. Brian's favourite words to hear were, "Grump" or "Bump" because he knew that his grandsons were there. His precious treasures in life were his three grandsons, Landen, Kolby and Josh Lindsay. Brian had two sons, David (Yolanda) Lindsay and Donnie Lindsay, who sadly passed away on April 9, 2022. Brian's brothers are Ricky Lindsay, Larry Lindsay, Michael Lindsay and sister, Donna Lindsay. His aunt by marriage and sister by heart, Sherry (Rushton) Lindsay. Brian was predeceased by his loving parents, Leo and Shirley (Roode) Lindsay; his sisters, Pauline Roode and Shirley Lindsay and brother, Randy Lindsay; also his in-laws, Donald and Shirley (Shearer) MacPhee; brother-in-law, Tony Beaton and sister-in-law, Shirley MacPhee. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to an animal shelter of choice. A private family celebration of life will be held at a later date.

CULGIN, Randall "Randy" Floyd - Age 60, Belmont passed away peacefully on August 21, 2023, in the VG Hospital surrounded by his family. Randy was born in Belmont on April 12, 1963, to Reginald and Dorothy (Roode) Culgin. He grew up and happily remained in Belmont his whole life. He was a respected community member who was known for his humble acts of kindness, never one to want the limelight. He started to work with his father at the age of seventeen and eventually took over Culgin Construction Ltd., now in its 51st year. Randy ran the business with integrity and honesty, helping others when he could. A dedicated father and loving husband who valued his family over everything else. He enjoyed snowmobiling, spending time with his camping friends and weekends at the camp. He loved nothing more than long road trips in his Dutchstar diesel pusher with Stacey. He is survived by his wife, Stacey (McCullum); daughter, Emma; son, Isaac (Bria

Soyer, Margaret Jennifer Betty Ann (Turney) of Central North River, NS, passed away on Tuesday, August 15, 2023 at home. Margaret will join other family who have passed away and are now at peace, her husband, John; son, Jonathan "Jimmy", her parents, Thomas and Edna (Beecham) Turney; sister, Beryl. She was also predeceased by her husband, John's parents, Edward and Dorothy Soyer and John's brother, Charles. She loved and spoiled her pets, offering home cooked meals, holiday dinners and several treats. Her last dog, Kane, passed in May 2023, giving her some comfort after losing her husband (March 2023) and son (December 2021). She really enjoyed her time contributing to the economy, whether it was ordering through the catalogues of Eaton's and Sears or in person at their stores. Other shops that were her favourites, Margolians, Mark's, Head Experts and Truro Atlantic Superstore. A special thanks to all who were so kind and created an enjoyable time for her trips out. Additionally, the family would like to thank the neighbours who were so helpful, so Margaret could enjoy her life at home. Margaret is survived by her daughter, Annette Soyer; grandson, Shawn White; granddaughter, Robin (Mikel) and great granddaughters, Olivia and Abigail Derksen. She is survived by several siblings, Mervyn, Jeanette, Yvonne, David, Christine, Rowland, along with their partners, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She certainly was one of a kind and liked things to be done, "her way". Even in the end, she had her wish...was home and had peace.
