

Parrsboro Band Day 50TH Anniversary a Huge Success

for 40 years. Wow, if that is not heartwarming I don't know what is. After the Alumni March three Awards were presented:

John Phillip Souza Award - Rob Bentley

William B. Perry - Sackville Citizens' Band

Volunteer of the Year Award - Norma Collinson

The rest of the afternoon and evening the audience was treated to music by Great George Street Band, Global Centric Brass Band, Hooligan's Ruff, and Paul St. Amand Soul Band. The Elastic Big Band wrapped the two-day event with great tunes. Our strawberry shortcake was a hit both days. Thanks to the vendors that set up for 2 days and provided food to the hundreds that were there.

The Parrsboro Band Assoc. would like to say a big Thank You to everyone who supported this wonderful 2 day event. Looking forward to 2024.

Perfect Weather - Fundy Shore Auto Club 23RD Show N' Shine

14 trophies were on the prize table for the Fundy Shore Auto Club 23rd Annual Show N' Shine held July 29-30 with awesome weather contributing to the large crowds. (Lawrence R Nicoll Photo)
