

Great Village and District Fire Brigade 100 Year Anniversary Community Day

Great Village and District Fire Brigade celebrated their 100th Anniversary at Faith Baptist Church grounds on August 16th by hosting a Community Day with lots of fun activities for the kids, demonstrations and a lovely BBQ. (Harrington photos)

This cute little puppy dog boy tried his luck at the sucker pull event run by Cheryl Slack.

Beautiful weather greeted the many guests and volunteers who enjoyed all the events and BBQ.

MLA Tom Taggart presents Chief Greg Kinsman with a plaque on behalf of the Nova Scotia Government congratulating the Brigade on their 100 Year Anniversary.

RCMP Sergeant Derek Bjorklund presents Chief Greg Kinsman with a plaque on behalf of the Colchester RCMP offering congratulations on the Brigade's 100th Anniversary.

Chantal Paupin and Stacey Paupin made a great mother/daughter team to give an AED demonstration.

Benjamin Luciw was happy to meet up with Sparky the Firedog.

Warmly Delivered.
